issues and trends      House Music Oona King,2013-02-18 How does it feel to lose your job in front of ten million people To ask a Government Whip for time to see your husband To represent the Secretary of State for Health at a family planning clinic on the day you fail your fifth IVF cycle To be loved and hated by people who don t even know you To be the second black woman elected to Parliament To be a Jewish woman representing a largely Muslim constituency To be the only MP who likes house music A decade is a long time in politics and in these candid diaries Oona King shows how she has changed since becoming an MP in 1997 From the intense strain on her marriage to her desperate struggle to have a baby Oona reveals how she chose to abandon her political ambition in favour of another to have a life      The Lotus Blossom Lila Lee,2017-02-21

Louise Farrell was homesick She had seen hundreds of examples of ancient architecture mosques and Hindu shrines She was bone tired and irritable tired of the culture the filth and poverty the red dirt piled about everywhere the crowds of humanity and the odor of chapattis being baked over cow dung fires Truth be said she was eager to return to the clean wide open spaces of the Flint Hills of Kansas Although her husband Richard had been told that no one could capture the essence of India in the written word he had notebooks filled with his impressions of the history the Vedic literature the agriculture the hundreds of dialects of the Hindi language the political turmoil and the warring religions of the country How did it happen that a basketball coach and mediocre teacher of history from the Midwest wound up in India after one of the countless famines that had struck the country this one more severe than others because of the rice crop which failed in Bengal after independence and partition The United States sent aid to this fledgling democracy of course The problem was this India could not repay its debts except in rupees What was the United States to do with hundreds of millions of rupees that could only be spent in India one of the poorest countries on the face of the earth Senator Fulbright came up with the solution The United States would send teachers to India to study and spend those rupees there And so it was that Richard and Louise Farrell and their daughter Kitty went to India to study and to travel in order to learn about one of the oldest cultures on earth

Introducing narrative mobility as a new approach in comparative studies of Iran and the US this book reinterprets the politics and aesthetics of relations between the nations through an analysis of Iranian and American authors The book focuses specifically on three authors Simin Daneshvar Shahriar Mandanipour and Don DeLillo who each employ narrative mobility to rethink intercultural negotiation addressing parallel issues in America and Iran from different but complementary perspectives The book analyzes the employment of parallel narrational techniques presenting physically and virtually mobile characters who embody their respective countries as they move from one culture to another The strange affinity between Iran and the US is ultimately revealed by viewing literary works as a contact zone through which the complicated relations and shared history of the two nations can be renegotiated On a more theoretical level the book reflects on the role of literature in particular the novel as a transnational medium as a bridge between nations in a period of globalization With its focus on cross cultural connections the book will be of interest to anyone studying or researching comparative literature US Iran relations and cultural studies generally
