Alexander Supertramp Journal:

Writing at the End of the World Richard E. Miller, 2005-10-23 What do the humanities have to offer in the twenty first century Are there compelling reasons to go on teaching the literate arts when the schools themselves have become battlefields Does it make sense to go on writing when the world itself is overrun with books that no one reads In these simultaneously personal and erudite reflections on the future of higher education Richard E Miller moves from the headlines to the classroom focusing in on how teachers and students alike confront the existential challenge of making life meaningful In meditating on the violent events that now dominate our daily lives school shootings suicide bombings terrorist attacks contemporary warfare Miller prompts a reconsideration of the role that institutions of higher education play in shaping our daily experiences and asks us to reimagine the humanities as centrally important to the maintenance of a compassionate secular society By concentrating on those moments when individuals and institutions meet and violence results Writing at the End of the World provides the framework that students and teachers require to engage in the work of building a better future

Fragile Ornaments, Melting Snowflakes and the Healing Light of Christmas Ronald William Cadmus, 2014-12-12 Not all Christmas ornaments sparkle on tree branches Some are fragile Easily broken And joy often disappears like melting snowflakes We are just like those ornaments and snowflakes But there is a healing light that can be found at Christmas

Read in a Different Light Catherine Gourley, 2000 Contains ten stories that explore the concept of the outsider

Imaginations of Death and the Beyond in India and Europe Günter Blamberger, Sudhir Kakar, 2018-03-27 This volume explores current images of afterlife afterdeath and the presence of the dead in the imaginations of the living in Indian and European traditions Specifically it focuses on the deepest and most fundamental uncertainty of human existence the awareness of human mortality on which depends any assignment of meaning to earthly existence as also to notions of worldly and otherworldly salvation This central idea is addressed in the literature arts audiovisual media and other cultural artefacts of the two traditions The chapters are based on two main assumptions First that one cannot report on the direct experience of death so it is only possible to speak allegorically of it Second in contemporary Western societies marked by structural atheism people look at literature the arts and mass media to study their depiction and reading of traditionally religious questions of disease death and the Beyond This is in contrast to Asian civilizations whose preoccupation with death and Beyond is persistent and perhaps central to the civilizations highest thought The chapters cover a wide spectrum of disciplinary approaches from psychoanalysis to religious anthropological literary and film studies from sociology and philosophy to art history and address issues of unsettling power comforting illusions of afterlife the relations between afterlife and fertility visions of technological immortalization of mankind the problem of thinking about death after the death of God socialist utopias of bodily immortality fear of Hell and punishment different concepts in relating the living and the dead near death experiences and cultural practices of spiritualism occultism and suicide Sociology After the Crisis

Charles C. Lemert, 2015-12-22 Widely assigned and taught in senior capstone and social theory courses Sociology After the Crisis offers the first systematic theory of social differences built on the sociological traditions by embracing Durkheim Weber and other familiar figures The first edition was acclaimed for its nuanced and original rereading of Durkheim in relation to the theoretical reasons he and his contemporaries neglected race and gender This new edition features two chapters of new material written in the summer of 2003 as the new social structures of the 21st century became increasingly clear The new Chapter Ten draws upon 9 11 the new world order of two Bush presidencies and globalization to show how individuals lives and sociologies must be thought about in new ways These events also highlight how American society and sociology have responded and sometimes failed in the struggle over the crisis of modernism Reviews for the First Edition This expansive reimagining of the historical roots of sociological imagination especially as it embraces voices and visions long lost to our most important national debates is balm to the fractured soul of American society Lemert's elegant and passionate volume will aid immeasurably in our nation's search for sane solutions to the crises of purpose and perspective he so skillfully explores Michael Eric Dyson author of Making Malcolm and Between God and Gangsta Rap Elegantly crafted Steven Seidman State University of New York at Albany

Into the Wild Jon Krakauer, 2009-09-22 NATIONAL BESTSELLER In April 1992 a young man from a well to do family hitchhiked to Alaska and walked alone into the wilderness north of Mt McKinley Four months later his decomposed body was found by a moose hunter This is the unforgettable story of how Christopher Johnson McCandless came to die It may be nonfiction but Into the Wild is a mystery of the highest order Entertainment Weekly McCandless had given 25 000 in savings to charity abandoned his car and most of his possessions burned all the cash in his wallet and invented a new life for himself Not long after he was dead Into the Wild is the mesmerizing heartbreaking tale of an enigmatic young man who goes missing in the wild and whose story captured the world's attention Immediately after graduating from college in 1991 McCandless had roamed through the West and Southwest on a vision quest like those made by his heroes Jack London and John Muir In the Mojave Desert he abandoned his car stripped it of its license plates and burned all of his cash He would give himself a new name Alexander Supertramp and unencumbered by money and belongings he would be free to wallow in the raw unfiltered experiences that nature presented Craving a blank spot on the map McCandless simply threw the maps away Leaving behind his desperate parents and sister he vanished into the wild Jon Krakauer constructs a clarifying prism through which he reassembles the disquieting facts of McCandless's short life Admitting an interest that borders on obsession he searches for the clues to the drives and desires that propelled McCandless When McCandless's innocent mistakes turn out to be irreversible and fatal he becomes the stuff of tabloid headlines and is dismissed for his naiveté pretensions and hubris He is said to have had a death wish but wanting to die is a very different thing from being compelled to look over the edge Krakauer brings McCandless's uncompromising pilgrimage out of the shadows and the peril adversity and renunciation sought by this enigmatic young man are illuminated with a rare understanding and not an ounce of sentimentality Into the Wild is a tour de force The power and luminosity of Jon Krakauer's storytelling blaze through every page

Spiritual Films James Piper, 2013-08-02 For decades centuries even when people thought of spirituality they thought only of religion I aim to stretch the tent of spirituality in this e book to include secular experience My particular approach to secular spirituality is through the medium of film Characters in the 43 films I discuss come to spirituality without religion In some of these films religion nibbles at the edges of events as when in the Brazilian film Central Station Dora the cynical letter writer leaves hard bitten Rio with a boy she hopes to return to his father and finds herself surrounded by evangelicals shrines and churches She does not have any kind of religious conversion but there is no denying that the piety of the countryside softened her and escorted her into spirituality Now and then I quote assorted Buddhists Muslims Christians and Jews but usually only when their remarks throw light on secular matters I have avoided relying on muddled mystics who write about the Great Turning Cosmic Oneness of Everything I don't know what they are talking about conceived in the context of unprecedented social and political turmoil mark a point in Freud's metapsychological project wherein the themes of loss and of psychic violence were becoming incontrovertible facts in the story of subject formation. Taking as their concern the difficulty of setting apart the inner and the outer worlds as well as the difficulty of preserving an image of the coherently bounded subject, the psychoanalytic frameworks of narcissism and melancholia provide the background coordinates for the volume's contributors to analyse contemporary subjectivities in new psychosocial contexts. This collection will be of great interest to all scholars and practitioners of psychoanalysis and the psychotherapies, social and cultural theory, gender and sexuality studies, politics and psychosocial studies. Memory of a Vagabond Adam Ross

Rapoport, 2014-09-17 In 2010 Adam Rapoport experienced a life-changing epiphany. He wanted to travel the world by any means necessary. But for the twenty-three-year-old son of an middle upper class family to do so, he would have to drop out of graduate school. Undaunted, he sold his possessions and hit the road with a backpack and 700 for the adventure of a lifetime. Adam wanted to experience the freedoms of homeless travel. Over the course of two years, he learned how to get around and survive on the road. He hitchhiked across the United States, he joined the crew of a sailboat and explored the Bahamas with a seemingly cursed captain. He then wound up working under the table in Central America. And finally, he studied under both wilderness survival experts and a spiritualist guru in Montana. Spiritual, adventurous, humorous, self-reflective, insightful, and even romantic, Memory of a Vagabond shows that following one's dream will bring you to places you never thought possible.

Coming to Our Senses Dierdra Reber, 2016-02-02 Coming to Our Senses positions affect or feeling as our new cultural compass, ordering the parameters and possibilities of what can be known. From Facebook likes to Coca-Cola loves, from emotional intelligence in business to emotional contagion in social media, affect has displaced reason as the primary catalyst of global culture. Through examples of feeling in the books, film, music, advertising, cultural criticism, and political discourse of the United States and Latin America, Reber shows how affect encourages the public to reason on the strength of sentiment alone. Well-being represented by happiness and health, and ill-being embodied by unhappiness and disease form the two poles of our social judgment, whether in affirmation or critique. We must then reenvision contemporary politics as operating at the level of the feeling body so we can better understand the physiological and epistemological conditions affirming our cultural status quo and contestatory strategies for emancipation. The Cambridge Companion to Literature and the Environment

Louise Westling, 2014 This authoritative collection of rigorous but accessible essays investigates the exciting new interdisciplinary field of environmental literary criticism. We Carry the Fire Richard A. Hoehn, 2021-02-17 We Carry the Fire describes a social and political spirituality defined by actions that save families, civilization, and the planet. These actions, based on values articulated in religious congregations, result in tangible outcomes in the real world: people live, instead of die; democracy is strengthened; nature is restored; and the human spirit flourishes. The author shows how an action spirituality is different from mere and escapist spiritualities. Spiritual meaning is found by working in solidarity with people around the world.

to love our neighbors as well as those who aren't our neighbors as ourselves As congregations are struggling to adjust to contemporary realities Hoehn brings the passion and knowledge of a pastor academic author activist and grassroots organizer down to earth in real time Outside 25 Hal Espen, 2003-10-28 Brings together more than thirty essays about high stakes adventures in the wild in a collection that includes contributions by such writers as Mark Jenkins Bill Vaughn Paul Theroux Sara Corbett and Peter Maass
