Al Manar And Alhurra Competing Satellite Stations And Ideologies:

Al-Manar and Alhurra Center for Center for Security Studies, 2014-11-16 The current US administration has identified the Lebanese Islamist group Hizbullah as a key threat and the group's media a source of increasing anti Americanism Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld blamed al Jazeera the leading Arabic language news station for encouraging Islamism by broadcasting beheadings of hostages in Iraq a charge the station denies In President George Bush's State of the Union address in 2004 he focused on Arab television stations he claimed are responsible for hateful propaganda against the US The stations distort news and show explicit images producing anti Americanism Al Manar a satellite television service launched by the Lebanese Hizbullah is one of those stations The US maintains that al Manar is anti Semitic and promotes hatred and lists Hizbullah as a terrorist group To counter what is viewed as the promotion of anti Americanism hate and terrorism the administration banned al Manar from American airwaves in December 2004 though legally the basis for banning the television station was due to its role in aiding Hizbullah not its messages The US launched its own television station Alhurra to compete with messages from Arab media outlets in general Are these efforts likely to succeed winning the hearts and minds of Arab and Muslim TV watchers To answer this question an analysis of Hizbullah's appeal is necessary What messages is the station actually carrying and with which constituencies do they resonate How does banning the station affect their credibility I analyze al Manar's ideology and link it to its bases of support I then examine the American actions to counter this ideological influence and how those attempts are received in the Arab world In contrast to previous reports of al Manar's broadcasts my study did not find overt support for suicide bombings or attacks on Americans or Israelis Most coverage was comparable to other stations The basic character of the station mainly comes through in the spots fillers between programmes which highlight negative American policy and military actions in the Middle East and the power of the resistance Hizbullah to protect Lebanon against incursions Al Manar has recently moderated its more extreme rhetoric with the goal of increasing Hizbullah's presence in Lebanese domestic politics as interviewees claimed Indeed research for this study was partly conducted during the period of parliamentary elections in Lebanon If moderation has progressed with political participation the finding is far reaching demonstrating a non confrontational method of mitigating an organization's radical stances Al Manar's stance can be interpreted as the frames or messages of a social movement geared to encourage attitudes which spur action and involvement These messages centre on Palestine the continuing threat posed by Israel American bias in the Arab Israeli conflict the power and importance of community solidarity and pride in Arab culture and the achievements of the Islamic Resistance Hizbullah's armed wing which have strong resonance in the Arab world Alhurra's message is intentionally opposite to these and is interpreted as another element in the western siege against Arab culture As such its presence adds to the polarization of Arab and American messages and perspectives Ironically messages communicated on the station are increasingly rejected as propaganda Viewers watch Alhurra to identify the American spin while they follow al Manar to learn the dangerous truths banned by the Americans Al- Manar and Alhurra Anne Marie Baylouny,2006 The current US administration has identified the Lebanese Islamist group Hizbullah as a key threat and the group s media a source of increasing anti Americanism Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld blamed al Jazeera the leading Arabic language news station for encouraging Islamism by broadcasting beheadings of hostages in Iraq a charge the station denies In President George Bush s State of the Union address in 2004 he focused on Arab television stations he claimed are responsible for hateful propaganda against the US The stations distort news and show explicit images producing anti Americanism Al Manar a satellite television service launched by the Lebanese Hizbullah is one of those stations The US maintains that al Manar is anti Semitic and promotes hatred and lists Hizbullah as a terrorist group The US launched its own television station Alhurra to compete with messages from Arab media outlets in general Global Security Watch—Lebanon David S. Sorenson,2009-11-12 A comprehensive examination of the complex domestic environment and the quarrelsome neighbors that contribute to Lebanon s condition as one of the most violent and unstable countries in the Middle East Global Security Watch Lebanon is the first volume to consider all factors political economic religious and actions by its neighbors that have contributed to Lebanon s violent past and that shape its current security status In Global Security Watch Lebanon author David Sorenson explores Lebanon s arcane almost dysfunctional political structure and economic system as well as the complex religious makeup of a country that is home to Christians Jews and Arabs with no majority faith Sorenson also looks at how the nation has often served as a focal point of diplomatic and military conflict for other nations including Syria Iran and Israel as well as how ill informed American policies toward Lebanon have ultimately harmed American strategic interests in the Middle East New Media and the New Middle East Philip Seib,2007-08-06 In this book leading international scholars examine the way new media is reshaping lives and politics Covering topics from women s rights to terrorism and countries from Israel to Saudi Arabia these authors explore the global and regional ramifications of the proliferation of communication technologies and the information they disseminate The SAGE Encyclopedia of Journalism Gregory A. Borchard,2022-01-28 Journalism permeates our lives and shapes our thoughts in ways that we have long taken for granted This set covers all significant dimensions of journalism such as print broadcast and Internet journalism U S and international perspectives and history technology legal issues and court cases ownership and economics The encyclopedia consists of signed entries from scholars experts and journalists The Hizbullah Phenomenon Lina Khatib,Dina Matar,Atef Alshaer,2014-11-15 Hizbullah is not only a leading political actor in Lebanon and a dynamic force in the Middle East but it is also distinguished by a sophisticated communication strategy From relatively humble beginnings in the 1980s Hizbullah s political clout and its public perception have followed an upward trajectory thanks to a political programme that blends military social economic and religious elements and adapts to changes in its environment Its communication strategy is similarly adaptive supporting the group s political objectives Hizbullah s target audience has expanded to a regional and global viewership Its projected identity too shifted from an Islamist resistance party opposed to Israel's presence in Lebanon to a key player within the Lebanese state At the same time Hizbullah's image has retained fixed features including its image as an ally of Iran its role as a resistance group to Israel and its original base as a religious party representative of the Lebanese Shiites The authors of this book address how Hizbullah uses image language and its charismatic leader Hassan Nasrallah to legitimise its political aims and ideology and appeal to different target groups Narrating Conflict in the Middle East Dina Matar,Zahera Harb,2013-06-21 The term conflict has often been used broadly and uncritically to talk about diverse situations ranging from street protests to war though the many factors that give rise to any conflict and its continuation over a period of time vary greatly The starting point of this innovative book is that to consider conflict within a singular concept disables a coherent analysis of the constituent factors behind any particular conflict At the same time to consider each conflict as entirely distinct and unique undermines an attempt to examine common factors in all conflicts The contributors set out to explore alternative ways in which the long term conflicts in Palestine and Lebanon have been and are narrated imagined and remembered in diverse spaces including that of the media They examine discourses and representations of the conflicts as well as practices of memory and performance in narratives of suffering and conflict all of which suggest an embodied investment in narrating or communicating conflict In so doing they engage with local global and regional realities in Lebanon and Palestine and they respond dynamically to these realities The Politics of Militant Group Survival in the Middle East Ora Szekely,2016-11-26 This book compares the performances of four key non state actors in the Arab Israeli conflict ecosystem the PLO Hamas Hizbullah and Amal It argues that it is not the assets a militant group has but rather how it acquired them that matters in explaining the variation in these actors abilities to militarily resist and politically recover from confrontations with far more powerful adversaries Groups that rely on marketing campaigns to secure local support and regional patronage do far better than those that rely on coercion or even barter The book develops a typology of organizations based on their foreign and domestic policies which has interesting implications for other non state actors such as ISIS It is based on field research in Jordan Lebanon Israel the West Bank Egypt and Syria including interviews with members of a range of Lebanese and Palestinian militant groups as well as politicians UN staff journalists and members of the Jordanian and Israeli armies Image Politics in the Middle East Lina Khatib,2012-10-22 Politics in the Middle East is now seen and the image is playing a central part in processes of political struggle This is the first book in the literature to engage directly with these changing ways of communicating politics in the region and particularly with the politics of the image its power as a political tool Lina Khatib presents a cross country examination of emerging trends in the use of visuals in political struggles in the Middle East from the Cedar Revolution in Lebanon to the Green Movement in Iran to the Arab Spring in Egypt Syria and Libya She demonstrates how states activists artists and people on the street are making use of television the social media and mobile phones as well as non electronic forms including posters cartoons billboards and graffiti to convey and mediate political messages She also draws attention to politics as a visual performance by leaders and citizens alike With a particular focus on the visual dynamics of the Arab Spring and based on case studies on the visual dimension of political protest as well as of political campaigning and image management by political parties and political leaders Image Politics in the Middle East shows how visual expression is at the heart of political struggle in the Middle East today It is a hard hitting enjoyable groundbreaking book challenging the traditional ways in which politics in the Middle East is conceived of and analysed

Czelusta, 2010-11 Donald Rumsfeld s vision of a transformed U S military has been discussed by many and understood by few and this lack of understanding has resulted in both significant
