The Palestinian Strategic Report 2012-2013 Dr. Mohsen Mohammad Saleh ,2015-06-30 This annual referential report has become an essential classic in the academic realm of Palestinian Studies It includes the latest and most recent statistical and analytic data on the various developments related to the Palestinian issue Al Zaytouna Center for Studies and Consultations in Beirut has published the Palestinian Strategic Report 2012 2013 PSR The Palestinian Strategic Report PSR is one of al Zaytouna s most important academic studies published periodically in both English and Arabic Today it can be surely asserted that PSR is a must reference for every researcher and academic who are interested in the contemporary developments of the Palestinian issue and the Arab Israeli conflict The PSR reviews biennially the various developments concerning the Palestinian question in a comprehensive objective and academic manner It offers a wealth of data up to date statistics and analyzes and offers an outlook of future events The PSR 2012 2013 falls in 400 pages and seven chapters Edited by Dr Mohsen Mohammad Saleh PSR 2012 2013 was written by 13 specialized researchers and reviewed by three consultants The seven chapters cover the internal Palestinian scene the Israeli Palestinian scene the Palestinian issue and the Arab world the Palestinian issue and the Muslim world the Palestinian issue and the international situation the land and the holy sites and the demographic economic and educational Indicators Palestinian Identity Rashid Khalidi,2010 Reprint of work originally published in 1997 New introduction by the author Public Administration in Palestine Usamah Salim Shahwan,2003 This work offers a critical analysis of the development of public administration in Palestine during the past 150 years Palestine's Christians and the Nationalist Cause Erik Freas,2024-12-23 This book provides an historical overview of Palestine s Christian communities and their role in the Palestinian nationalist movement during the late Ottoman and British mandatory periods More than being a history of Palestine s Christian Arabs the book focuses on Palestine s Christians during the formative period of Palestinian Arab national identity attentive to the broader topic of the relationship between nationalism and religion in this case between Arab identity and Islam Whereas until recently historians have tended to assume that national and religious identities are distinct and mostly mutually exclusive things more recent scholarship has addressed the fact that often there exists considerable overlap between the two though it should be noted often in ways that are not by any means inherently exclusive of those not belonging to the majority faith as is the case here The relationship is also an ever changing one hence the final chapter of the book which functions as something of an epilogue regarding the current status of Palestine s Christians vis vis their place in the nationalist cause and relationship with the broader Muslim population The book will be of interest to historians and scholars focused on the modern Middle East Palestinian history Muslim Christian inter communal relations and the relationship between nationalism and religion Assessment of media development in Palestine UNESCO Office Ramallah,2014-11-24 The Losing Battle With Islam David Selbourne,2010-09-09 In this comprehensive study of the Islamic revival from 1947 to the present historian David Selbourne traces in detail the complex causes motivating the rise of Muslim fundamentalism in many countries and the West s largely uncomprehending response to it He frankly describes the hostilities cruelties and errors of judgment on both sides Writing neither from the left nor from the right Selbourne pieces together up to date information from more numerous sources than in any other work on the subject He highlights the grotesque role that some sections of the Western media have played and seeks to do justice to the Islamist cause demonstrating how many of the real issues of the Islamic revival have been evaded Selbourne argues that whether the reawakening of the Islamic and Arab worlds has taken the political form of Arab nationalism as under the leadership of Egyptian President Gamal Abdul Nasser in the 1950s or the economic form of the OPEC oil embargo in 1973 and 1974 or the religious form of the Iranian revolution of 1989 and the present al Qaeda suicide squads in all its guises it is motivated by a sense of entitlement in Muslims to determine their own destiny free of Western subordination Selbourne concludes with a warning against the illusions of the West about its superiority and ability to contain a force that is confident of its own moral superiority and certain of its ultimate triumph Addressed both to general readers and to policy makers academics and journalists The Losing Battle with Islam will stand for some time as one of the most impartial and authoritative accounts of a half century of Western conflict with Islam They Make a Difference Hada Sarhan, 2011-05-06 They Make a Difference Men Say NO contains a selection of nine interviews conducted by journalist Hada Sarhan during the tumultuous years following the 2003 occupation of Iraq Each of the nine men she interviews rejects in part or in whole the Western orthodoxy regarding the Palestinian conflict and the war in Iraq Their thoughts and words demonstrate that no is not an expression of resignation but rather an act of resistance to injustice The interview subjects come from all over of the world and include journalists novelists and politicians Although their backgrounds are quite different the nine men are connected by a common thread each is either a decision maker or contributes through media or cultural clout to setting the agenda for those in charge of policy choices By saying no to violence war and genocide they are saying yes to peace and humanity Instead of fanning the flames of division and hatred these men are committed to fostering a dialogue between East and West based on mutual respect and understanding Trans-Colonial Urban Space in

Document Analysis Systems VI Simone Marinai, Andreas Dengel, 2004-12-10 This volume contains papers selected for presentation at the 6th IAPR Workshop on Document Analysis Systems DAS 2004 held during September 8 10 2004 at the University of Florence Italy Several papers represent the state of the art in a broad range of traditional topics such as layout analysis applications to graphics recognition and handwritten documents Other contributions address the description of complete working systems which is one of the strengths of this workshop Some papers extend the application domains to other media like the processing of Internet documents The peculiarity of this 6th workshop was the large number of papers related to digital libraries and to the processing of historical documents a taste which frequently requires the analysis of color documents A total of 17 papers are associated with these topics whereas two years ago in DAS 2002 only a couple of papers dealt with these problems In our view there are three main reasons for this new wave in the DAS community From the scientific point of view several research fields reached a thorough knowledge of techniques and problems that can be effectively solved and this expertise can now be applied to new domains Another incentive has been provided by several research projects funded by the EC and the NSF on topics related to digital libraries
