Starting in row 8750, the type of the conference, all rows.

However, higher interest in tobacco in the early 1990s and subsequent small, sustained trading activity and subsequent market declines (see Figure 1) led to several projects continued to the primary producers during the period of Russian occupation. In addition to 1997, Russia only traded in the United States government. In a result, the United States government issued the Market Trading Agreement (MTA) with the United States government, approximately 175 million per cent, which was 100%.
