Re-Membering and Surviving Shirley A. James Hanshaw,2020-10-01 The first book length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture It focuses on four novels Captain Blackman 1972 by John A Williams Tragic Magic 1978 by Wesley Brown Coming Home 1971 by George Davis and De Mojo Blues 1985 by A R Flowers Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory He is engaged therefore in re membering a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero s empathy with and compassion for the so called enemy a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature

Melissa Ziobro, 2025-04-15 The Battlin Bastards of B Company 1st Battalion 506th Infantry Regiment 101st Airborne Division share their harrowing Vietnam experiences highlighting brotherhood resilience and the lasting impact of war on their lives The Battlin Bastards of B Company 1st Battalion 506th Infantry Regiment 101st Airborne Division fought daily against a well trained and determined enemy during their tours in Vietnam 1968-71 Before the war these men were brothers sons sweethearts husbands and fathers Some were athletes some musicians Some were just out of high school some in established careers There is no monolithic Battlin Bastard but when they joined the 101st Airborne Division one of the most highly decorated divisions in the United States Army in Vietnam they united fighting for each other and fighting to return safely home It was difficult to put their experiences behind them As Bravo veteran Terry Taylor recalled I learned at the age of 18 that you don't have to die to go to hell Vietnam was hell on earth And yet despite the obstacles many of these men built successful lives post war Decades after returning from the war when the men were ready to cautiously revisit their experiences the Bastards started stateside reunions From these reunions came the wish to share their stories with the world to honor to educate and to inspire The result is this book written from interviews and diligent archival research in which the surviving Battlin Bastards tell their stories of combat in their own words and honor those who sacrificed for their country and their unit
