For military members required to perform duty on these dates, Directors may grant compensatory time off, mission requirements permitting. Pass and leave rules apply per AFI 36-3003, Military Leave Program.

Federal law does not permit the Department of the Air Force to grant civilian personnel additional leave. However, Directors are encouraged to treat family days as "liberal leave" days to the maximum extent possible, for which use of leave, previously earned compensatory time, or previously approved time-off awards may be applied, as eligible. Supervisors are encouraged to grant leave requests and consider approving authorized telework on these dates, mission requirements permitting. Please reference AFI 36-815, Absence and Leave, for further guidance. Contractor employees must adhere to their respective contract requirements and employer policies.

For questions regarding application to military members, please contact Col Will Vaughn, HAF/DS, will.v Vaughn@usa.af.mil, or 703-692- ; concerning application to civilian personnel, please contact Dr. Shantia Smith, SAF/AAR, shantia.smith@usa.af.mil, or 703-693- .

Eternity Matters Mark Lounello, Ret SMSgt USAFR an Iraqi Freedom Veteran, 2017-01-23 Life is about walking every day circumspectly The most important thing in life is having purpose and meaning for living because eternity does matter Values eternal values are what gives us a reason to live and transcends our ability to develop relationships and cherish the time with friends and family In war historians focus on the destruction tactics and the atrocities inflicted on mankind and its impact on humanity however there is also a spiritual dimension of war that alters military members and their families for generations Jesus Christ came to heal the brokenhearted and many unsung heroes throughout history have served in ways that have never been documented in our history books without ever receiving the Medal of Honor or the accolades of the combat troops Those are people that serve in the medical or chaplaincy who are there in the midst of suffering crisis intervention and grief Many of the wounded warriors injuries focused on physical evidence but it is the unseen mental and emotional scars that can be the most devastating Chaplains and chaplain assistants work as a team to care for the wounded and injured helping them to overcome the hurt and pain and encourage them to go deeper in their respective faith Our nation's military need to be encouraged and given guidance on the value of spiritual resiliency and afforded the opportunities and rights of the First Amendment in the free exercise of religion What do you say to a grieving spouse or parent over the loss of a sacred fallen military member What words do you choose to comfort a young marine who just lost both of his legs in the hospital People in need of crisis intervention require guidance and care and in some instances the right referral to address their issues Empathic listening equanimity ministry of presence stabilizing influence in the midst of the storm with a servant hearted attitude and grace oriented style is the formula for any successful ministry team The most valuable asset in my experience is our faith and knowledge of God's word that is able to give hope and comfort to those in need As a spiritual
