African Art in Motion, 1974 African art in motion Robert Farris THOMPSON, 1979 African Art in Motion Robert Farris Thompson, 1979 African Art in Motion Robert Farris Thompson, 2023-12-22 This captivating book offers an in depth exploration of the profound relationship between dance art and objects in African culture focusing on the ways in which movement breathes life into static forms In many parts of Africa dance extends beyond the human body uniting with everyday objects such as spinning tops and cutlasses transforming them into vibrant autonomous works of art The Tiv people of Nigeria exemplify this philosophy where the motion of a spinning top or a twirling blade is imbued with the same artistic essence as human dance This broader conception of dance highlights a fundamental principle in African art the fusion of movement form and life Motion in this context is not just a performance but a bridge to sacred realms where the aliveness of an image or object is essential for it to function as a work of art The book further delves into the unity of African art forms where sculpture dance music and visual objects are all intertwined creating a holistic aesthetic experience Famous examples such as the Basinjom mask of Cameroon illustrate how art maintains its vitality even in stillness requiring ceremonial practices to anchor its powerful presence The author explores how these performances and objects combine not only to enhance the visual brilliance of the art but also to create metaphors for ethical and spiritual existence This seamless integration of the arts provides a rich framework for understanding the icons of African culture attitudes of the body like standing sitting and balancing which transcend time evoking themes of stability flexibility and balance Through this lens the book offers a journey into the timeless poetic world of African danced art where physical movement and artistic expression unite to reveal deeper truths about life and spirit This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974 AFRICAN ART IN MOTION, ICON AND ACT. Robert Farris Thompson, 1974 The Art Museum as Educator Council on Museums and Education in the Visual Arts, Barbara Y. the role of museums collectors and photography in disseminating visual cultures as relations of power It then explores the remaking of the field at the dawn of African independence with the shift toward contemporary art and the rise of Black Atlantic studies in the 1970s and 1980s Finally it examines the post and decolonial reconfiguration of the field driven by questions of representation repair and restitution
