Afrikaans 2014 Memorandum Final Exam:

Grassroots Literacy and the Written Record John Trimbur, 2020-04-08 This book examines how asbestos activists living in remote rural villages in South Africa activated metropolitan resources of representation at the grassroots level in a quest for justice and restitution for the catastrophic effects on their lives caused by the asbestos industry It follows the Asbestos Interest Group AIG over a fifteen year period through its involvement in grassroots research in legal cases and in the compensation systems for asbestos related disease It examines how the AIG became grassroots technicians of translocal paperwork moving texts back and forth between periphery and center pushing documents through the textual mazes of the courts medical institutions the compensation system and various government agencies The book addresses rhetorical mobility and the extent to which given the AIG's position on the periphery it has been able to enter the voices and interests of villagers into formerly inaccessible forums of deliberation and decision making The Terrorist Album Jacob

Dlamini, 2020-05-05 An award winning historian and journalist tells the very human story of apartheid's afterlife tracing the fates of South African insurgents collaborators and the security police through the tale of the clandestine photo album used to target apartheid's enemies From the 1960s until the early 1990s the South African security police and counterinsurgency units collected over 7 000 photographs of apartheid's enemies The political rogue's gallery was known as the terrorist album copies of which were distributed covertly to police stations throughout the country Many who appeared in the album were targeted for surveillance Sometimes the security police tried to turn them sometimes the goal was elimination All of the albums were ordered destroyed when apartheid's violent collapse began But three copies survived the memory purge With full access to one of these surviving albums award winning South African historian and journalist Jacob Dlamini investigates the story behind these images their origins how they were used and the lives they changed Extensive interviews with former targets and their family members testify to the brutal and often careless work of the police Although the police certainly hunted down resisters the terrorist album also contains mug shots of bystanders and even regime supporters Their inclusion is a stark reminder that apartheid's guardians were not the efficient if morally compromised law enforcers of legend but rather blundering agents of racial panic With particular attentiveness to the afterlife of apartheid Dlamini uncovers the stories of former insurgents disenchanted with today's South Africa former collaborators seeking forgiveness and former security police reinventing themselves as South Africa's newest export security consultants serving as mercenaries for Western nations and multinational corporations The Terrorist Album is a brilliant evocation of apartheid's tragic caprice ultimate failure and grim legacy Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John

Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience
