Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991      The Russian Revolutions of 1917 Kari Aga Myklebost, Jens Petter Nielsen, Andrei Rogatchevski, 2020-04-14 The year 2017 saw a multitude of conferences and exhibitions devoted to the centenary of the Russian Revolutions both in Russia and in other parts of the world The commemoration of this event would be incomplete without an exploration of its Northern dimension in October 2017 UiT The Arctic University of Norway hosted the conference The Russian Revolutions of 1917 The Northern Impact and Beyond Norway and Russia are both northern states and the two countries have a common border in the High North Some articles in this volume based on the conference proceedings investigate the impact of the Russian Revolution in Norway and Sweden while others deal with the High North e g the Revolution and Civil War in Northern Russia and the radicalization of the workers movement of Northern Norway some are also devoted to representations of the Russian Revolution at exhibitions and on the big screen      The Literary World, 1895      Building Kathy Ann Robert Johnson, In Building Kathy Ann Robert Buzz Johnson shares the deeply personal and technically detailed story of building his custom steel hulled boat from scratch in Michigan s Upper Peninsula Drawing on his lifetime of construction experience family heritage in craftsmanship and a love of Lake Superior Johnson walks readers through every stage from childhood inspiration selecting materials and designing the layout to welding the hull and installing systems The project took several years and was guided by a commitment to quality safety and sharing adventure with family The Kathy Ann was more than a boat it was a legacy built with help from friends and lessons passed down from his father and grandfather Blending memoir and technical manual the book celebrates perseverance problem solving and the rewards of doing something by hand and heart It is both a tribute to Northern heritage and a practical guide for any aspiring boat builder Building Kathy Ann is a remarkable tribute to hands on craftsmanship and perseverance Robert Johnson takes readers on a heartfelt detailed journey from blueprint to launch transforming raw steel into a seaworthy vessel His deep rooted knowledge patience and problem solving shine through every step Blending memoir and manual this book is both inspiring and informative a true celebration of skill legacy and love for the Great Lakes A must read for makers mariners and dreamers alike Victor R Volkman Superior Reads From Modern History Press      The ascent of globalisation Harry Blutstein, 2015-12-01 The ascent of globalisation tells the sweeping historical drama of the development of globalisation from the Second World War to the present day The story is told through the richly detailed accounts of eighteen remarkable men and women describing how these architects reshaped the modern world for better or worse Profiling their lives ideas and struggles reveals fresh insights into the nature of globalisation The book also examines their legacies shedding new light on many of the problems the world faces today the global financial crisis the political and economic malaise afflicting Europe the numerous failures of the United Nations the unchecked power of corporations and the inability of governments to cooperate on critical issues such as climate change      Construction Matters Stefan Holzer, Silke Langenberg, Clemens

Knobling, Orkun Kasap, 2025-03-04 Construction History Construction Heritage Recent Construction Historiography Industrialization Engineering Sciences Building Materials Building Actors Construction History is still a fairly new and small but quickly evolving field The current trends in Construction History are well reflected in the papers of the present conference Construction History has strong roots in the historiography of the 19th century and the evolution of industrialization but the focus of our research field has meanwhile shifted notably to include more recent and also more distant histories as well This is reflected in these conference proceedings where 65 out of 148 contributed papers deal with the built heritage or building actors of the 20th or 21st century The conference also mirrors the wide spectrum of documentary and analytical approaches comprised within the discipline of Construction History Papers dealing with the technical and functional analysis of specific buildings or building types are complemented by other studies focusing on the lives and formation of building actors from laborers to architects and engineers from economical aspects to social and political implications on legal aspects and the strong ties between the history of construction and the history of engineering sciences The conference integrates perfectly into the daily work at the Institute for Preservation and Construction History at ETH Zurich Its two chairs the Chair for Building Archaeology and Construction History and the Chair for Construction Heritage and Preservation endeavor to cover the entire field and to bridge the gaps between the different approaches methodologies and disciplines between various centuries as well as technologies learning together and from each other The proceedings of 8ICCH give a representative picture of the state of the art in the field and will serve as a reference point for future studies
