The Science of Serendipity Matt Kingdon, 2013-02-08 Innovation The word might make you think of Silicon Valley But innovation isn't the sole province of start-ups They didn't invent it and they're not always the ones from which we can best learn As Matt Kingdon argues in The Science of Serendipity it's corporate innovators battling within large established organisations who are the field's real heroes Tapping into 20 years of experience on the front lines of innovation bringing new products and services to market and helping organisations become more creative Kingdon dissects the ways in which corporations are continually reborn He looks at the anatomy of innovation asking How do time pressed executives go about taking risks How do they prepare to see and seize opportunity And how do you place humans with all of their fears and foibles at the heart of commercial success In a conversational jargon free style built on a practitioner's observations and anecdotes The Science of Serendipity traces the dilemmas that executives in a wide variety of firms face It details the steps taken to overcome the issues and get great ideas across the finish line If you're looking for a guide in your fight against the corporate machine this is the business book for you Matt Kingdon is the Co founder Chairman and Chief Enthusiast of What If Innovation Partners For 20 years What If has partnered with the world's most successful forward looking companies businesses such as Barclays Four Seasons Google PepsiCo Pfizer and Virgin to galvanise innovation and deliver impact Its 250 inventors work across the Americas Europe and Asia

Fantastic Failures Luke Reynolds, 2018-09-11 Even the most well known people have struggled to succeed Find out what they learned and how they turned their failures into triumphs with this engaging and youthful guide on how to succeed long term There is a lot of pressure in today's society to succeed but failing is a part of learning how to be a successful person In his teaching career Luke Reynolds saw the stress and anxiety his students suffered over grades fitting in and getting things right the first time Fantastic Failures helps students learn that their mistakes and failures do not define their whole lives but help them grow into their potential Kids will love learning about some of the well known people who failed before succeeding and will come to understand that failure is a large component of success With stories from people like J K Rowling Albert Einstein Rosa Parks Sonia Sotomayor Vincent Van Gogh Julia Child Steven Spielberg and Betsy Johnson each profile proves that the greatest mistakes and flops can turn into something amazing Intermixed throughout the fun profiles Reynolds spotlights great inventors and scientists who discovered and created some of the most important medicines devices and concepts of all time including lifesaving vaccines and medicines that were stumbled upon by mistake

The Powers Mark W.

Erwin, 2018-11-06 Nonfiction Book Awards Gold Winner and Winner of the Illumination Book Awards 2018 Gold Enduring Light Medal The Powers is written for people who have a drive to become highly successful in their chosen field of endeavor. Throughout this revised edition you will meet many who came from ordinary backgrounds to achieve extraordinary things in a variety of pursuits. They came from different circumstances with a wide range of gifts as well as many personal limitations. All have experienced failure and some were serial failures. The Powers they discovered within themselves are the same Powers Erwin has identified and discusses. Through study they can become your Powers. While everyone has different dreams and goals, everyone also possesses their own set of Powers, even if some are hidden deep within. Erwin has found that intellectual curiosity, developing a grand vision, setting clear goals, practicing persistence, and other concepts included in this book are common traits among the most successful people. After years of studying works by great authors such as Napoleon Hill, Norman Vincent Peale, and Dale Carnegie, befriending highly successful people, and exploring an experimental learning style, Erwin has found common traits that not only create success but also allow one to go from ordinary to extraordinary. Mark Erwin has mentored hundreds of people and has collected life-changing lessons throughout his journey that brought him from a sixteen-year-old in a jail cell to a multimillionaire before he was forty. In The Powers he shares personal stories, philosophical and practical advice, and a one-of-a-kind collection of wisdom and insights from some of the most successful people in history, many of whom are his friends. This book creates the blueprint for you to become exceptionally successful and maps out how using the Powers in combination with your unique personality and emotional intelligence will help you stand out and make a difference in whatever area you choose to pursue. Read and reread this book and your true path for success on your terms will be revealed, and you will know exactly how to make your dreams come true. Ebook: Exploring Innovation 4e

SMITH, 2024-04-24 Ebook Exploring Innovation 4e On Leadership Allan Leighton, 2008-12-05 There have been many books on leadership, but here at last is one that actually draws on the wisdom of those in the know. Acting on his belief that you get the most done in the first twenty minutes of a meeting, Allan Leighton invited Britain's top businessmen and women to spend just twenty minutes talking about their views on leadership. And he has talked to an astonishing range of them: the established giants such as Philip Green and Rupert Murdoch; the new generation of leaders such as Andy Hornby at HBOS and Justin King at Sainsbury; and entrepreneurial figures who include James Dyson and Gulam Noon at Noon Foods. He has gone further too, interviewing the nation's top financial journalists whose views can help make a company soar or sink, the money men whose support is critical for investment and acquisition, the politicians who help create the climate in which businesses can thrive or falter. The result is a fascinating 360-degree view of what it takes to be a business leader in today's cut-throat global economy, thought-provoking, often surprising, always insightful. Creativity for Innovation
