Skubaduik

Ek was 'n paar jaar gelede met vakansie in Kreta en het probeer skubaduik. Die skubaduikklas het 'n uur geduur en toe is ek saam met vyf ander mense op 'n boot uit see toe. Ons was vir twee ure lank in die see. Dit het ons 'n idee gegee hoe dit sou voel om te skuba duik.

Dit was groot pret. Ons het ses meter onder die water geswem en hoef nie elke minuut boontoe te kom vir asem nie. Ons het onder die water asemgehaal deur die

South African Language Rights Monitor 2011 / Suid-Afrikaanse Taalregtemonitor 2011 Johan Lubbe, Theodorus du Plessis, 2016-01-05 The SALRM 2011 provides a rich source of information on a range of language related subjects A prominent issue remains the changing of street and place names including the Pretoria Tshwane and Louis Trichardt Makhado sagas Language in education remains a thorny issue as medium of instruction at school and tertiary level and the proposal that passing an African language should be a requirement in order to obtain a tertiary degree in South Africa In terms of language legislation the draft version of the National Language Act was proposed The language of record in courts also received attention in the media Educational Leadership for Transformation and Social Justice John Ambrosio, 2016-11-03 Educational Leadership for Transformation and Social Justice examines the relationship between the lived experiences of educational leaders at the University of the Free State in South Africa and how they think about and practice leadership for transformation and social justice Based on biographical information public speeches published writings and in depth semi structured face to face interviews the book presents and analyses seven chapter length narratives of these leaders This book explores how some leaders at the University of the Free State from the vantage point of various racialized and gendered identities and generational experiences conceptualize and enact leadership for transformation and social justice Ambrosio argues that there are certain values beliefs concepts principles and ways of thinking that cut across their experiences and demographic differences The narratives are presented in the leaders own words and describe how their lived experiences shaped their values and identities and inform how they think about and practice leadership for transformation and social justice One convergence that emerged among these leaders is that their leadership is an extension of who they are of their core values identities and ethical commitments Another is that they are motivated by visions of change that go beyond the University by bigger dreams that infuse their work with meaning and purpose With its in depth analysis of the narratives this book will provide educational leaders who have an orientation towards transformation and social justice with insights that enable them to think differently about how to make the policies programs and institutional culture of their own universities more equitable and just It will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education educational justice higher education educational leadership and change social justice and racial justice 2012 Gold's History Solves Mankind's Mystery Michael Brumfield, Mike Brumfield, 2005-06 A fascinating story of two men researching the origins of religion Their journey takes them down THE ROAD of shocking scientific discoveries in our ancient past Primitive mans heaven is irrefutably up in all religions and yet Michael s buddy remains steadfast in his belief of a spirit world However Michael sees the matching evidence provided by science today We are going up need gold to do it and last but not least are creating robots to assist us with the obvious He presents the evidence to prove religions story is todays science Up and space is religions heaven and our logical goal in achieving the immortality of our own species We have come full circle Religion matches today's science What they look like and why they stay away is the climax of his research Religions universal up theme proves space is inhabited by flesh and blood scientific beings We are going up space the final frontier Political Handbook of the World 2012 Tom Lansford, Tom Muller, 2012-04-02 For this edition the Handbook editors have attempted to cover national elections for all of 2011 This information is incorporated within the regular text wherever possible or in headnotes at the beginning of the country entries for elections that occurred in the latter part of the year Each entry begins with information on a country's political status area population major urban centers languages currency and head of state and chief executive Demographic and economic information is presented in the section titled The Country while political background constitution and government foreign relations and current issues are examined in Government and Politics Political Parties and Groups provides an extensive analysis of formal parties political groupings and any antigovernment or illegal formations Each entry ends with an overview of the nation's legislature a current cabinet list and a brief intergovernment representation section including a membership list of intergovernment organizations for the respective country Summary of Events in Lesotho, 2012 Assessing Multilingual Children Sharon Armon-Lotem, Jan de Jong (professore universitario.), Natalia Meir, 2015 Second language learners often produce language forms resembling those of children with Specific Language Impairment SLI At present professionals working in language assessment and education have only limited diagnostic instruments to distinguish language impaired migrant children from those who will eventually catch up with their monolingual peers This book presents a comprehensive set of tools for assessing the linguistic abilities of bilingual children It aims to disentangle effects of bilingualism from those of SLI making use of both models of bilingualism and models of language impairment The book's methods oriented focus will make it an essential handbook for practitioners who look for measures which could be adapted to a variety of languages in diverse communities as well as academic researchers Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing

Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025-08-19 This volume brings together leading scholars from Africa Europe the Americas and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family which cover an area from Cameroon and Kenya in the north to South Africa in the south The Bantu family is part of the Niger Congo phylum and one of the world s biggest language groups comprising around 500 languages The family includes major languages with large numbers of speakers such as Zulu Kinyarwanda and Swahili the most widely spoken and taught African language as well as many community languages and several endangered languages Bantu languages feature prominently in the complex and multilingual language ecologies that are characteristic of the linguistic situation in much of Africa and they provide rich evidence for the study of theoretical and comparative linguistics language contact and language change They play an important role in education commerce culture and artistic expression in the media and public discourse in governance and social justice and are central to the future of the continent and the well being of its communities The first part of The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages provides background and context with chapters exploring the history of research in the field language and prehistory in Bantu speaking Africa and typology and variation Chapters in the second part offer broad comparative overviews of Bantu phonology morphology syntax semantics and pragmatics socio and applied linguistics before Parts III VII cover more specific topics in Bantu linguistics across a variety of subfields ranging from structural issues such as the augment and melodic tone to historical and sociolinguistic topics such as Bantu languages in the diaspora and language policy and standardization The chapters in the final part offer individual structural overviews of a range of languages from across the Bantu speaking area The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly

Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald, 2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO s ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Eskia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature s place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today

God's Waiting Room Casey Golomski, 2024-12-13 Can older racists change their tune or will they haunt us further once they're gone Rich in mystery and life's lessons God's Waiting Room considers what matters in the end for older white adults and the younger Black nurses who care for them An innovation in creative nonfiction Casey Golomski's story of his years of immersive research at a nursing home in South Africa thirty years after the end of apartheid is narrated as a one day room by room tour The story is told in breathtakingly intimate and witty conversations with the home's residents and nurses including the untold story of Nelson Mandela's Robben Island prison nurse and readers learn how ageism sexism and racism intersect and impact health care both in South Africa and in the United States as well as create conditions in which people primed to be enemies find grace despite the odds Course or Book Club Reading and Discussion Guide https://dhjhxawhe8q4.cloudfront.net/rup/wp/v2/wp-content/uploads/2025/02/04135941_gods_waiting_room_reading_questions.pdf For copyright reasons this edition is not available in the South African Development Community and Kenya

ICGR 2020 3rd International Conference on Gender Research Dr Karen Jones, Professor Claire Collins, Professor Madeleine Davies, Professor Marina Della Giust, Professor Grace James, 2020-04-02 Stating the Sacred Michael J. Walsh, 2020-02-25 China's constitution explicitly refers to its sovereign domain as sacred territory Why does an avowedly secular state make such a claim and what does this suggest about the relations between religion and the nation state Focusing primarily on China Stating the Sacred offers a novel approach to nation state formation arguing that its most critical element is how the state sacralizes the nation Michael J Walsh explores the religious and political dimensions of Chinese state ideology making the case that the sacred is a constitutive part of modern China He examines the structural connection among texts constitutions legal codes national histories ostensibly universal and normative categories race religion citizenship freedom human rights and territoriality the integrity of sovereignty and control over resources and people showing how they are bound together by the sacred Considering a variety of what he refers to as theopolitical techniques Walsh argues that nation states undertake sacralization in order to legitimate the violence of establishing and expanding their sovereignty Ultimately territorialization is a form of sacralization and the foundational role of the sacred makes all nation states religious states Stating the Sacred offers new ways of understanding China's approach to legality control of the populace religious freedom human rights and the structuring of international relations and it raises existential questions about the fundamental nature of the nation state

Touch Screen Tablets Touching Children's Lives Joanne Tarasuik, Gabrielle Strouse, Jordy Kaufman, 2018-02-28 Touch screen tablets have greatly expanded the technology accessible to preschoolers toddlers and even infants given that they do not require the fine motor skills required for using traditional computers Many parents and educators wish to make evidence based decisions regarding young children's technology use yet technological advancements continue to occur faster than researchers can keep up with Accordingly despite touch screen tablets entering society more than 5 years ago we are in the infancy of research concerning interactive media and children The topic has gained traction in the past couple of years For example theoretical papers have discussed how interactive media activities differ from physical toys and passive media Christakis 2014 and how educational apps development should utilise the four pillars of learning Hirsh Pasek et al 2015 Yet there has been little experimental research published on young children and touch screen use Monthly List ,1934 Promadata, Promotion, Marketing & Advertising Data ,1982
