Cxc Past Papers 00-02 Macmillan Publishers Limited, Pan Macmillan, 2004-11 Cxc Past Papers 95-98: Caribbean History (Basic and General) Caribbean Examinations Council, Caribbean Examinations Council Staff, 2000-10-01

General History of the Caribbean Higman, B.W., UNESCO, 1905-06-21 This volume looks at the ways historians have written the history of the region depending upon their methods of interpretation and differing styles of communicating their findings. The chapters discussing methodology are followed by studies of particular themes of historiography. The second half of the volume describes the writing of history in the individual territories taking into account changes in society, economy and political structure. The final section is a full and detailed bibliography serving not only as a guide to the volume but also as an invaluable reference for the General History of the Caribbean as a whole. Caribbean History Caribbean Examination Council, 2016

General History of the Caribbean UNESCO Volume 6 NA NA, 2019-06-12 Volume 6 looks at the ways historians have written the history of the region depending upon their methods of interpretation and differing styles of communicating their findings. The authors examine how the linguistic diversity of the region has affected the historian's ability to coalesce an historical account. The second half of the volume describes the writing of history in the individual territories taking into account changes in society, economy and political structure. This volume concludes with a detailed bibliography that is comprehensive of the entire series. Caribbean History Caribbean Examinations Council, 2010

The CARICOM Bibliography Caribbean Community. Secretariat. Library, 1983 Caribbean History Caribbean Examinations Council, 1990 Jamaican National Bibliography, 1984 The Palgrave Handbook of Conflict and History Education in the Post-Cold War Era Luigi Cajani, Simone Lässig, Maria Repoussi, 2019-06-28

This Handbook provides a systematic and analytical approach to the various dimensions of international, ethnic and domestic conflict over the uses of national history in education since the end of the Cold War. With an upsurge in political, social and cultural upheaval particularly since the fall of state socialism in Europe, the importance of history textbooks and curricula as tools for influencing the outlooks of entire generations is thrown into sharp relief. Using case studies from 58 countries, this book explores how history education has had the potential to shape political allegiances and collective identities. The contributors highlight the key issues over which conflict has emerged, including the legacies of socialism and communism, war, dictatorships and genocide, issues which frequently point to tensions between adhering to and challenging the idea of a cohesive national identity and historical narrative. Global in scope, the Handbook will appeal to a diverse academic audience including historians, political scientists, educationists, psychologists, sociologists and scholars working in the field of cultural and media studies. General History of the Caribbean Unesco, 1999

The principal objective of this volume is to provide a survey of the development of historical understanding in the region. It also seeks to point to the future, setting out a new agenda and reflecting on the potential of new methods and interpretations. Making Histories in Museums Gaynor Kavanagh, 2005-12-01 This exciting new series recognizes the tremendous potential of museum based histories and the ways in which they can engage people with ideas about the past People encounter and use museums on many different levels personal social and intellectual and access meanings that best fit their agendas Histories in museums can stimulate the imagination provoke discussion and increase our ability to question what we know From this it can be deduced that history in museums is as much about the present as it is about the past as much about how we feel as about what we know as much about who we are as about who we have been The first volume in the series Making Histories in Museums examines museological features but deals particularly with the historiographical issues that have previously been underplayed Each contributor looks at theoretical frameworks within a specific field of study using case studies and comparisons of practice Good practice is highlighted and potential ways forward explored The book establishes the themes that will be the subject of more detailed study in later volumes This series will prove an invaluable resource for all those concerned with or interested in museums museum professionals museum students historians and students of history as well as the general reader

General History of the Caribbean: Methodology and historiography of the Caribbean B. W. Higman,1997 The principal objective of this volume is to provide a survey of the development of historical understanding in the region It also seeks to point to the future setting out a new agenda and reflecting on the potential of new methods and interpretations

Caribbean History Caribbean Examinations Council,2008

The Caribbean in a Changing World Stephanie Fullerton-Cooper, Erica Gordon, Livingston Smith,2017-06-23 This collection is a critical reflection of the evolution of Caribbean countries since the demise of the West Indies Federation in 1962 At this historical juncture some territories opted for independence while others remained dependent territories The volume examines Caribbean societies in comparative and general ways covering aspects of their ongoing development and challenges It covers such areas as Caribbean integration the state of human capital and social policy in the region the education sector Caribbean economic sustainability and significantly the physical environment of the Caribbean A central question has always been should these territories have gone independent or stayed under some British tutelage The book addresses this question illustrating that these island states have made considerable progress especially in the maintenance and deepening of democratic practices

Caribbean Literature in Transition, 1920-1970: Volume 2 Raphael Dalleo, Curdella Forbes,2021-01-14 The years between the 1920s and 1970s are key for the development of Caribbean literature producing the founding canonical literary texts of the Anglophone Caribbean This volume features essays by major scholars as well as emerging voices revisiting important moments from that era to open up new perspectives Caribbean contributions to the Harlem Renaissance to the Windrush generation publishing in England after World War II and to the regional reverberations of the Cuban Revolution all feature prominently in this story At the same time we uncover lesser known stories of writers publishing in regional newspapers and journals of pioneering women writers and of exchanges with Canada and the African continent From major writers like Derek Walcott V S Naipaul George Lamming and Jean Rhys to recently recuperated figures like Eric Walrond Una Marson Sylvia Wynter and Ismith Khan this volume sets a course for the future study of Caribbean literature Before & After 1865 Brian L. Moore, Swithin R. Wilmot, 1998 This wide ranging collection of original essays covering themes of education colonial politics Caribbean regionalism and the Caribbean in the Atlantic World was prepared as a tribute to educator and historian Roy Augier The 28 chapters reflect the principal areas of Augier s academic and professional activities CSEC PAST PAPERS 2020-2023 CARIBBEAN HISTORY. ,2024
