Chamberlain was more satisfied with the Treaty of Versailles than Lloyd George. How far do you agree? (10 marking)

How to write a great conclusion!

Checklist for a great conclusion

- Have you made a judgement?
 - Try to argue for one side or the other or for one factor in particular (combination of 2 maximum for an MFL question). (Examiners won't appreciate a 'both sides are true' or 'they were all important to an extent')
- Have you explained why you think this?
 - A judgement is worth as much as the evidence behind it. Make sure you've explained clearly why one factor is more important than the others, or why one side of the argument is more convincing.
- Is your judgement directly answering the question?
 - If you're using the P and I structure of PQ1, the answer is likely yes. If you're not, then you run the risk of being a bit vague/ going off on a tangent. Use the words of the Q in your P and I to be safe!
