Research questions Does the use of graphic organizers improve the quality of students pro and con arguments when writing persuasive essays

- 1 Is the use of graphic organizers an effective tool for ELL students
- 2 In what way is student attitude towards essay writing altered upon the introduction of graphic organizers as an essay writing tool

Research Activities Context This intervention took place in an 8th grade U S History classroom with 32 students Of these 32 two students were re designated former ELL The intervention was conducted at a medium sized middle school in the greater Bay Area region Both former ELL students were withdrawn from the program by their families and placed into mainstream schooling Twenty five of the thirty two students were Asian with the remaining seven being Caucasian This group of students was roughly representative of the school s population as a whole

Methods and data Before the intervention a survey was administered to the students to determine student attitudes towards essay writing and their ability to make a written argument A rubric was used to measure achievement on persuasive essays in six different areas of the essay Once pre intervention essays were completed students were introduced to two graphic organizers designed to help them focus their arguments and back them up with historical evidence Students also participated in a debate and worked as individuals and in groups After the intervention students wrote another essay using their graphic organizers On the final day of the intervention students took another attitudinal survey

Results For the most part students achieved much higher marks on the second essay than on their first The majority of students reported on their attitudinal survey that they found the Argument Outline Handout useful However students reported feeling less comfortable backing up an argument with historical evidence after the intervention than they had before Many students expressed after the intervention that they particularly enjoyed the debate and hoped to do more debates in future units

Grade Level 8 Data collection methods Essay Observation field notes Survey Attitude Curriculum Area Social Studies United States History Instructional approaches Debate Group review Graphic Organizers The Effect of Graphic Organizers on the Writing of Students in a Second Grade Classroom Eric L. Daniels, 1999 "Can We Use a Story Map?" Le Tran, 2009

Research Question How will using a story map graphic organizer help improve students structure and organization in their narrative writing

Sub Questions Will using a story map help ELL students to be able to plan their writing and organize their writing during the pre write phase Will using a story map help students to allow their readers to imagine the world of the event or experience in their narrative writing

Research Activities Context This study took place in a fourth grade self contained classroom that was located in a small district under Program Improvement The class was composed of a diverse student population with a wide range of academic needs In this intervention there were four students who were chosen as target students based on their low writing ability All four students were English Language Learners

Methods and Data This intervention spanned 5 weeks It was implemented in order to guide students in improving the organization and structure of their narrative writing Student achievement was defined based on their increasing scores and the layout of their papers whether or not the paragraphs were identifiable The data included a collection of their graphic organizers narrative writing attitudinal surveys observational notes and homework Results Comparisons of baseline and outcome data indicate that target students showed slight growth on their writing scores based on a rubric in the organization of the writing and in their attitude towards writing Conclusions Story map graphic organizers provided students with a visual display of how to write a narrative It also provided students with guidance to start and continue through the different sections of a narrative This intervention demonstrated that with modeling practice and many examples students will be able to improve in the organization and structure of their writing and feel more confident as they write Grade Level Fourth Grade Data Collection Methods Curriculum assessments Survey Attitude Writing Assessments and Observation Student Curriculum Areas ESL ELL Writing Instructional Approaches Writing Explicit Instruction Writing Narrative Homework and Graphic organizers
