Rethans,A.F.W. van der Steeg,2012-12-06 About 550 registrants from 51 different countries attended the Seventh Ottawa Conference on Medical Education and Assessment in Maastricht We received 525 abstracts for the conference divided in thematic poster sessions and platform presentations Organising the conference was an honour and we tried to meet the high standards of a friendly and relaxed atmosphere which has characterized previous Ottawa conferences During and after the conference about 250 papers were submitted for publication in the conference proceedings leaving us little time for a post conference depression Despite the large number of papers the editors have attempted to review and edit the papers as carefully as possible. Occasionally, however, correspondence exceeded reasonable deadlines, preventing careful editing of a small number of the papers. Although we felt that our editorial task was not quite finished, we nevertheless decided to include these papers. We thank the many authors for their enthusiastic and prompt response to occasionally tedious editorial suggestions and requests. We are sure that this collective effort has resulted in a book that will make an important contribution to the field of medical education. The editors want to thank Jocelyn Flippo Berger, whose expertise with desktop publishing and perseverance was a great help.

Teaching the Canon in 21st Century Classrooms Michael Macaluso, Kati Macaluso, 2018-11-01

The canon, as much an ideology as it is a body of texts perceived to be intrinsic to the high school English classroom, has come under scrutiny for maintaining status quo narratives about whiteness, masculinity, heterosexuality, ability, and even those associated with American ideals of self-reliance, the good life, and the self-made man. Teaching practices around these texts may also reinforce harmful practices and ways of thinking, including those connected to notions of culture, literary merit, and methods of reading, teaching, and learning. Teaching the Canon in 21st Century Classrooms offers innovative critical ways of reading, thinking about, and teaching canonical texts in 21st-century classrooms. Responding to the increasingly pluralized, digitized, global 21st-century English classroom, chapter authors make explicit the ideologies of a canonical text of focus while also elaborating a pedagogical approach that de-centers the canon, bridges past and present, applies critical theory, and celebrates the rich identities of 21st-century readers. In using this book, teachers will be especially poised to take on the canon in their classroom and thus to open up their curricula to ideas, values, concerns, and narratives beyond those embedded in the canonical texts.
