Better Serving Teens through School Library-Public Library Collaborations Cherie P. Pandora, Stacey Hayman, 2013-08-15 In this practical guidebook experienced librarians a public librarian and a school librarian share advice and ideas for extending resources containing costs and leveraging capabilities between school and public libraries offering insights and strategies to overcome today's economic challenges. The current economic crisis has had a drastic impact on both public and school libraries. As budgets shrink, resources become scarcer and the job of the librarian becomes harder. The conundrum of doing more with less challenges even the most seasoned professionals whose institutions face service cutbacks, disappointed patrons, and possible job eliminations or closures. This book asserts that a collaboration between school and public libraries can effectively serve the needs of two populations: teens and the community at large while minimizing the cost to do so. Better Serving Teens through School Library Public Library Collaborations offers thought-provoking advice and ideas for practical use in real-world libraries. The authors provide step-by-step guidance for those who wish to start, strengthen, or extend a partnership with colleagues at a sister library, covering topics ranging from teen advisory boards and collaborative programs to homework help and professional development. Veterans in the field as well as beginners can utilize the wealth of tools within, including worksheets, timelines, and checklists, to leverage the capabilities of other agencies to fortify both their own and their institutions' value.

Expectations and Aspirations Safaa El Tayeb El-Kogali, Caroline Krafft, 2019-01-30 Education, which has been at the heart of the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region's history and civilizations for centuries, has a large untapped potential to contribute to human capital, well-being, and wealth. The region has invested heavily in education for decades but it has not been able to reap the benefits of its investments. Despite a series of reforms, MENA has remained stuck in a low-learning, low-skills level. Expectations and Aspirations: A New Framework for Education in the Middle East and North Africa identifies four key sets of tensions that are holding back education in the region: credentials and skills discipline and inquiry control and autonomy and tradition and modernity These tensions are shaped by society and are reflected in classrooms If they are not addressed MENA will continue to operate at a level below its potential This report outlines a new framework with a three pronged approach that can help address these tensions and unleash the potential of education in MENA A concerted push for learning that starts early for all children regardless of background with qualified and motivated educators and that leverages technology uses modern approaches and monitors learning outcomes A stronger pull for skills by all stakeholders in the labor market and society that involves coordinated multisystem reforms within and beyond the education system A new pact for education at the national level with a unified vision shared responsibilities and accountabilities Education is not just the responsibility of the education system it is everyone's business The push pull and pact framework offers an opportunity for MENA to move forward to reclaim its heritage of a learned region and to meet the expectations and aspirations of its people The current situation in MENA requires a renewed focus on education not just as a national priority for economic growth and social development but as a national emergency for stability peace and prosperity
