United Arab Emirates International Monetary Fund. Middle East and Central Asia Dept., 2016-07-27 This 2016 Article IV Consultation highlights that non oil economic activity in the United Arab Emirates slowed to 3.7 percent in 2015 Negative effects on overall growth were partially offset by the increase in oil production Despite the strong fiscal policy response to adjust to lower oil prices the fiscal balance turned to a deficit of 2.1 percent of GDP while the current account surplus declined to 3.3 percent of GDP Banks remained well capitalized and liquid though pressures on profitability are emerging as asset quality weakens owing to the economic slowdown and rising funding costs Economic activity is expected to moderate further in 2016 before improving over the medium term

Globalized Finance and Varieties of Capitalism H. van Zon, 2016-05-01 Hans van Zon analyzes the financialization of developed capitalism and argues that the emergence of finance as a dominant force has contributed to the relative decline of the West He demonstrates that the neo liberal model is inherently unstable and undermines capitalist economies which can only function if they are embedded in institutions that are non or even pre capitalist He shows how a toxic combination of financialization corporate globalization and a deregulated and parasitic financial industry have led to structural economic stagnation in both the USA and the greater part of the EU

The Report: Mongolia 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-05-23 Since the country's transition from communism two decades ago the Mongolian economy has experienced rapid liberalisation Sectors including ICT and insurance are expanding quickly and while the mining sector has been responsible for making Mongolia a rising star in the global economy there is great potential for further growth in all economic sectors Politically stable and rich with natural resources Mongolia has emerged as a bellwether for investor confidence in recent years The 2013 commercialisation of the Oyu Tolgoi gold and copper mine is helping to diversify Mongolia's mineral exports away from coal while the government is working to improve the investment environment by adopting the new Investment Law among other measures Challenges do exist however from the long harsh winters that slow construction to the difficulty of connecting the sparsely populated nation through ICT and transport systems In response the government has partnered with the private sector on a number of fronts in order to promote economic diversification and
