Reimagining Language Instruction Sabina Rak Neugebauer, Emily Phillips Galloway, Christina L. Dobbs, 2023. Use this unique volume to transform the learning and teaching of language in ways that empower all students to succeed. This book offers insight into how to teach language, a core component of developing skilled readers and writers across all content areas in ways that value the rich and diverse language assets students bring to the classroom. The authors offer guidance to help K-12 teachers move beyond current approaches to teaching language in the classroom to support equitable student outcomes in both linguistically diverse and linguistically homogenous classrooms. The text provides a step by step process to uncover conceptions of language and its instruction that undercut equitable opportunities to learn. Readers will gain new strategies for teaching the language of school tasks while integrating students' distinctive language experiences as resources for learning. School leaders will learn how to implement a schoolwide exploration into teaching language that promotes equity all while building collaboration among administrators, teachers, and students. Book Features: Promotes linguistic equity by providing teaching strategies and whole school practices critical for optimizing student success and access to instruction; assessment and reading. Provides classroom examples that show readers how to engage in the core practices described in the book across developmental levels and academic disciplines. Includes reader friendly and user supportive features such as textboxes that describe the principles that undergird the approaches. Offers classroom vignettes depicting common instructional challenges and tensions to show how teachers can engage in equitable evidence based practices for student success. Uses reflection questions to help readers track their developing understanding of ideas and to reflect on their own values and teaching goals.
