1960 Al Filreis, 2021-10-26 In 1960 when World War II might seem to have been receding into history a number of artists and writers instead turned back to it They chose to confront the unprecedented horror and mass killing of the war searching for new creative and political possibilities after the conservatism of the 1950s in the long shadow of genocide Al Filreis recasts 1960 as a turning point to offer a groundbreaking account of postwar culture He examines an eclectic group of artistic literary and intellectual figures who strove to create a new language to reckon with the trauma of World War II and to imagine a new world Filreis reflects on the belatedness of this response to the war and the Holocaust and shows how key works linked the legacies of fascism and antisemitism with American racism In grappling with the memory of the war he demonstrates artists reclaimed the radical elements of modernism and brought forth original ideas about testimony to traumatic history 1960 interweaves the lives and works of figures across high and popular culture including Chinua Achebe Hannah Arendt James Baldwin Amiri Baraka Paul Celan John Coltrane Frantz Fanon Roberto Rossellini Muriel Rukeyser Rod Serling and Louis Zukofsky and considers art forms spanning poetry fiction memoir film painting sculpture teleplays musical theater and jazz A deeply interdisciplinary cultural literary and intellectual history this book also offers fresh perspective on the beginning of the 1960s

A Commentary on THE MINOR PROPHETS David Pawson, 2019-08-22 David Pawson looks at the messages of these so called minor prophets and says I do not like that term To God all prophets are important whether they speak a little or a lot Even if God only gave you three words for somebody else that is prophecy You don't need to do it at length for fifty years as some prophets did There are some prophets in the Old Testament who only speak once and then as far as we know they disappear but they have given a message from God This is all a prophet is someone who has heard a message and passes it on to the right people It is such a simple ministry You don't need to be theologically educated you don't need to be a public speaker In fact God seems to entrust this ministry to those who don't have a gift of oratory It is exciting to hear ordinary folk who would never be able to get up into a pulpit and preach a sermon hear from God and pass on a word from him

Mainframe Experimentalism Hannah Higgins, Douglas Kahn, 2023-09-01 Mainframe Experimentalism challenges the conventional wisdom that the digital arts arose out of Silicon Valley's technological revolutions in the 1970s In fact in the 1960s a diverse array of artists musicians poets writers and filmmakers around the world were engaging with mainframe and mini computers to create innovative new artworks that contradict the stereotypes of computer art Juxtaposing the original works alongside scholarly contributions by well established and emerging scholars from several disciplines Mainframe Experimentalism demonstrates that the radical and experimental aesthetics and political and cultural engagements of early digital art stand as precursors for the mobility among technological platforms artistic forms and social sites that has become commonplace today Mainframe Experimentalism challenges the conventional wisdom that the digital arts arose out of Silicon

Kathy Acker Georgina Colby, 2016-08-30 An in depth analysis of the work of one of the twentieth century's most innovative writers Kathy Acker's body of work is one of the most significant collections of experimental writing in English In Kathy Acker Writing the Impossible Georgina Colby explores Acker's compositional processes and intricate experimental practices from early poetic exercises written in the 1970s to her final writings in 1997 Through original archival research Colby traces the stages in Acker's writing and draws on her knowledge of unpublished manuscripts notebooks essays illustrations and correspondence to produce new ways of reading Acker's works Rather than treating Acker as a postmodern writer this book argues that Acker continued a radical modernist engagement with the crisis of language and carried out a series of experiments in composition and writing that are comparable in scope and rigor to her modernist predecessors Stein and Joyce Each chapter focuses on a particular compositional method and insists on the importance of avant garde experiment to the process of making new non conventional modes of meaning Combining close attention to the form of Acker's experimental writings with a consideration of the literary cultures from which she emerged Colby positions Acker as a key figure in the American avant garde and a pioneer of contemporary experimental women's writing

Key Features Examines unpublished manuscripts notebooks lecture notes letters and manuscripts from the Kathy Acker Papers Features eleven previously unpublished images of original manuscripts correspondence and colour illustrations from the Kathy Acker Papers Utilises major archival study of Acker's experimental compositional practices Situates Acker as a late modernist writer and a key figure in the American Avant Garde here is a collection of my second 50 poems my writing journey started after I became redundant from my job as a post person in March 2016 There is a wide range of topics that I have tried to cover these still include some sports poems and some on mental health but I have started to branch out and put a pen to paper whenever the urge strikes When I decided on making my own poetry book to which I mean from writing printing then putting it all together to make a small collection I also thought after reading so many different types of poetry books Just like taking life s many routes and paths so will my poetry books and if you are mad enough to become a fan you will take on my journeys This collection starts where my first collection finished so from May 2017 to October 2017 I managed to write these fifty poems If you were mad enough to follow my poetic journey the first fifty took me over a year to put together whilst this second fifty took half the time Research bulletin University of Ibadan.
