

NERVOUS SYSTEM POEM

Refined in their responses systems, great things can ONLY MANAGE become best great will.

The nervous system is the major controlling, regulatory and communicating system in the body.

It is the source of all mental activity including thoughts, feelings, and memory; the nervous system consists of the brain, spinal cord, sensory organs and all the nerves that connect these organs throughout the body.

The nervous system has many functions but all that matter is to consider the body's internal environment in constant communication with the environment of the external environment.

And finally mention it is possible to achieve the best

The nervous system has many functions at central and peripheral nervous system; the central nervous system is made up of brain and spinal cord and the peripheral is made up of nerves that branch off from the spinal cord and extend to all parts of the body.
