Think of all of the words that remind you of football. Write the words below:

A large, empty, wavy rectangular box with a brown border, intended for writing words related to football.

Now use the words that you wrote above to write an acrostic poem. If you finish early, you can decorate your poem.

Acrostic Poems Soccer In Spanish:

Day Dreams Anton Wills-Eve, 2013-12-20 This short selection of poems and stories includes some poems from Rhymes for no Reason which I published earlier this year My main aim when writing poetry or short prose works is either to amuse my readers or to tell a story or point a moral I have never been able to see the sense in writing beautiful English just for the use of language alone Hence this selection includes humour love sadness spiritual works bordering on prayers and tales which concentrate on how human emotions affect or are manipulated by different people I must admit however that if some of the works appear forced or unusual I have experimented with different types of rhyming in places For example the format in the Arranging a Rendez Vous was in answer to a challenge that I could not do it And some of the wistful memories evoked in the stories and verse are based on true events in my life However What turns him on is entirely fictional and was written for a flash fiction contest about erotic experiences without using any specifically erotic words And I am not protesting too much If anyone were to ask me however the secret to writing a particular type of poem or story I cannot help them With the exception of acrostics where I write the first letters of each line vertically first and then compose the poem I have no set way of approaching any writing My novel James and Jacqueline which is coming out later this year is a classic example of someone writing a romance very close to the truth especially in its theme and setting but also very obviously a fictitious story This perhaps best sums up all my work But as long as you have fun thumbing through this book and reading extracts at random please don't try and read it straight through and wanting to re read at least a quarter of them then I will be happy
