

1. The point of view from which the passage is told can best be described as that of:

CORRECT RESPONSE ^

The best answer is C because the person who is telling the story is never identified. This unidentified narrator, however, knows enough about the main character, Abshu, to describe in detail Abshu's difficult childhood and his commitment as an adult to working in a community center.

2. It can reasonably be inferred from the passage that which of the following is a cherished dream that Abshu expects to make a reality in his lifetime?

CORRECT RESPONSE ^

The best answer is H because the first paragraph specifically indicates that Abshu's goal was to expand the horizons of the children he worked with. In lines 2-5, the passage states that Abshu "had committed himself to . . . broaden the horizons for the young, gifted, and black—which was how he saw every child milling around . . ." Line 12 states a second time that he wanted to broaden their horizons.

3. It can reasonably be inferred from the passage that Abshu and the Masons would agree with which of the following statements about the best way to raise a child?

CORRECT RESPONSE ^

The best answer is C because both the Masons and Abshu tried to develop discipline in the children under their care. In the Masons' home, "There was a strict curfew" (lines 56-59), which Abshu credited for "keeping him out of gangs" (lines 57-58). At the community center, Abshu also believed in discipline: "There had to be rules someplace in [the children's] world, some kind of discipline. And if they understood that, then he worked with them, long and hard" (lines 65-68).

4. The fourth paragraph (lines 31-37) establishes all of the following EXCEPT:

CORRECT RESPONSE ^

The best answer is H. This question asks test takers to find the choice that is NOT included in the fourth paragraph. Information about what Abshu remembered most about his time with the Masons is included in the fifth paragraph (lines 38-42).

5. It can reasonably be inferred that which of the following characters from the passage lives according to Abshu's definition of a life fully lived?

CORRECT RESPONSE ^

The best answer is D because the second half of the eighth paragraph specifically refers to what "gave Abshu an appreciation for a life fully lived" (line 66). The narrator goes on to explain that the job working with young kids was what made Abshu "most fulfilled" (lines 70-71). Abshu held this job as an adult.
