Achille Bocchi Symbolicarum Quaestionum Quinque:

Emblems and the Natural World Paul J. Smith, Karl A.E. Enenkel, 2017-09-11 Since its invention by Andrea Alciato the emblem is inextricably connected to the natural world Alciato and his followers drew massively their inspiration from it For their information about nature the emblem authors were greatly indebted to ancient natural history the medieval bestiaries and the 15th and 16th century proto emblematics especially the imprese The natural world became the main topic of for instance Camerarius's botanical and zoological emblem books and also of the applied emblematics in drawings and decorative arts Animal emblems are frequently quoted by naturalists Gesner Aldrovandi This interdisciplinary volume aims to address these multiple connections between emblematics and Natural History in the broader perspective of their underlying ideologies scientific artistic literary political and or religious Contributors Alison Saunders Anne Rolet Marisa Bass Bernhard Schirg Maren Biederbick Sabine Kalff Christian Peters Frederik Knegt Agnes Kusler Aline Smeesters Astrid Zenker Tobias Bulang Sonja Schreiner Paul Smith and Karl Enenkel Malvasia's Life of the Carracci: Commentary and Translation, 2000 The Emblem in Renaissance and Baroque Europe: Tradition and Variety Alison Adams, Anthony J.

Harper, 2023-11-27 The volume is a cross section of contributions to the Glasgow International Emblem Conference 1990 and demonstrates the range of research currently under way into the emblem tradition in the Renaissance and Baroque periods and the variety of its development across the centuries in many European countries The seventeen papers are arranged here in broad national and thematic groupings showing the emblem tradition in France Italy the Low Countries Germany Britain within the field of alchemy and extending into wider European traditions The volume is generously illustrated and an index is provided for the orientation of the reader An impression of the richness of the European emblem tradition is given for the general reader whilst the specialist is provided with a comprehensive insight into the many and varied strands of current emblem research and the diversity of approach adopted by scholars internationally Shakespeare's Feminine Endings

Philippa Berry, 2012-11-12 Philippa Berry draws on feminist theory postmodern thought and queer theory to challenge existing critical notions of what is fundamental to Shakespearean tragedy She shows how through a network of images clustered around feminine or feminized characters these plays disfigure conventional ideas of death as a bodily end as their figures of women are interwoven with provocative meditations upon matter time the soul and the body The scope of these tragic speculations was radical in Shakespeare's day yet they also have a surprising relevance to contemporary debates about time and matter in science and philosophy A New History of Western Art Koenraad Jonckheere, 2022-10-15 A radical re-examination of 2 500 years of European art deconstructing and demystifying its long history from ancient to present How has art evolved from the pursuit of the ideal human form to a black square on a white canvas Why is a banana duct taped to a wall worth more on the art market than a beautiful seventeenth century landscape By taking art for what it actually is a piece of stone or wood a sheet of paper with some lines drawn on it a painted canvas this lively and accessible account shows how seemingly meaningless objects can be transformed into celebrated works of art Breaking with conventional notions of artistic genius Koenraad Jonckheere explores how stories and emotions give meaning to objects and why changing historical circumstances result in such shifting opinions over time Tracing its story from ancient times to present A New History of Western Art reframes the evolution of European art and radically reshapes our understanding of art history Published in association with Hannibal Books

Venice and the Renaissance Manfredo Tafuri,1995-03-27 Pursuing the intersections of Venetian culture from the beginning of the sixteenth century through the first decades of the seventeenth Manfredo Tafuri develops a story crowded with characters and full of surprises He engages the doges Andrea Gritti and Leonardo Dona architects and artists Sansovino Serlio Palladio and Scamozzi and scientists Francesco Barozzi and Galileo He records the battle that was fought for architecture as metaphor for absolute truth and good government and contrasts these with the myths that inspired them

Joannes Sambucus and the Learned Image Arnoud Visser,2005-02-01 The emblem is one of the most remarkable literary inventions of Renaissance humanism The symbolic imagery presented in these Neo Latin emblem books constituted an important influence on many areas in early modern literature and art This volume provides the first comprehensive study of Sambucus influential Emblemata first published by Christopher Plantin Antwerp 1564 It reconstructs the cultural historical contexts in which it was produced thus reconsidering the social and commercial functions of the humanist emblem Accompanied by a detailed analysis of individual emblems it takes into account the emblems classical intertextuality and the relationship between word and image This study shows how the emblematic practice can differ from contemporary symbol and emblem theories which have often coloured modern interpretations of the genre

Ben Jonson and the Politics of Genre A. D. Cousins,Alison V. Scott,2009-02-19 This study considers how Jonson threaded his political views into the various literary genres in which he wrote Renowned scholars offer perspectives on many of Jonson s major works and together they reassess his political life in Jacobean and Caroline Britain

Authority, Innovation and Early Modern Epistemology Martin McLaughlin,2017-07-05 Giordano Bruno 1548 1600 who died at the stake is one of the best known symbols of anti establishment thought The theme of this volume which is offered as a collection of essays to honour the distinguished Bruno scholar Hilary Gatti reflects her constant concern for the principles of cultural freedom and independent thinking Several essays deal with Bruno himself including an analysis of the Eroici furori a study of his reception in relation to the group known as the Novatores and discussions of several important aspects of his stay in England The authors and texts discussed here are linked by a relentless interest in the question of authority and originality and they range from literary figures such as Alberti 1404 72 Vasari 1511 74 and the proponents of quantitative verse in sixteenth century England to controversial philosophers who like Bruno were condemned by the Church such as Tommaso Campanella 1568 1639 and Giulio Cesare Vanini 1585 1619 Taken together these chapters show how much that was new and revolutionary in early modern culture came from its confrontation with the past Martin McLaughlin is Agnelli

Drawing Relationships in Northern Italian Renaissance Art Giancarla Periti, 2017-07-05 Vasari's celebration of the art of the central Italian cities of Florence Rome and Venice has long left in shadow the art of northern Italy The economic and historical decline of the region compounded this effect with the dispersal of the treasures of the Farnese to Naples the Este to Dresden and the Gonzaga to Madrid and Paris Each chapter in this volume celebrates a stunning work from the region among them Correggio's famed Camera di San Paolo in Parma Parmigianino's Camerino in the Rocca Sanvitale near Parma the studiolo of Alberto Pio at Carpi and the Tomb of the Ancestors in the Tempio Malatestiano in Rimini The volume as a whole offers fascinating insights into the tussle between the maniera moderna and the maniera devota in the first half of the sixteenth century when the unity between the elegance and beauty of art and its religious significance came under debate Around the year 1550 when Michelangelo's Last Judgement came under attack for impiety and lasciviousness and the reformists called for an art that would invoke in the viewer a devotional response that identified manifestations of the divine with human feelings and emotions In northern Italy it was on the foundation laid by Correggio with his tenderness and ability to evoke the softness of living flesh that the Carracci brothers built their reform of painting

Iconology, Neoplatonism, and the Arts in the Renaissance Berthold Hub, Sergius Koder, 2020-09-23 The mid twentieth century saw a change in paradigms of art history iconology The main claim of this novel trend in art history was that renowned Renaissance artists such as Botticelli Leonardo or Michelangelo created imaginative syntheses between their art and contemporary cosmology philosophy theology and magic The Neoplatonism in the books by Marsilio Ficino and Giovanni Pico della Mirandola became widely acknowledged for its lasting influence on art It thus became common knowledge that Renaissance artists were not exclusively concerned with problems intrinsic to their work but that their artifacts encompassed a much larger intellectual and cultural horizon This volume brings together historians concerned with the history of their own discipline and also those whose research is on the art and culture of the Italian Renaissance itself with historians from a wide variety of specialist fields in order to engage with the contested field of iconology The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Renaissance history Renaissance studies historiography philosophy theology gender studies and literature

Lavinia Fontana's Mythological Paintings Liana De Girolami Cheney, 2020-08-18 This volume investigates emblematic and art historical issues in Lavinia Fontana's mythological paintings Fontana is the first female painter of the sixteenth century in Italy to depict female nudes as well as mythological and emblematic paintings associated with concepts of beauty and wisdom Her paintings reveal an appropriation of the antique a fusion between patronage and culture and a humanistic pursuit of Mannerist conceits Fontana's secular imagery provides a challenging paragone with the male tradition of history painting during the sixteenth century and paves the way for new subjects to be depicted and interpreted by female painters of the seventeenth century

DiFuria, Walter Melion, 2021-12-20 In epideictic oratory ekphrasis is typically identified as an advanced rhetorical exercise that verbally reproduces the experience of viewing a person place or thing more specifically it often purports to replicate the experience of viewing a work of art Not only what was seen but also how it was beheld and the emotions attendant upon first viewing it are implicitly construed as recoverable indeed reproducible This volume examines how and why many early modern pictures operate in an ekphrastic mode such pictures claim to reconstitute works of art that solely survived in the textual form of an ekphrasis or they invite the beholder to respond to a picture in the way s he responds to a stirring verbal image or they call attention to their status as an image in the way that ekphrasis as a rhetorical figure makes one conscious of the process of image making or finally they foreground the artist s or the viewer s agency in the way that the rhetor or auditor is adduced as agent of the image being verbally produced Contributors Carol Elaine Barbour Ivana Bi ak Letha Ch ien James Clifton Teresa Clifton Karl Enenkel Arthur DiFuria Christopher Heuer Barbara Kaminska Annie Maloney Annie McEwen Walter Melion Lars Cyril N rgaard Dawn Odell April Oettinger Shelley Perlove Stephanie Porras Femke Spielberg Caecilie Weissert Elliott Wise and Steffen Zierholz
