Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas Sarah J. Donovan, Kim Johnson, Anna J. Small Roseboro, Barbara Edler, Gayle Sands, 2025-09-01 Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas reimagines formative assessment by advocating for a dynamic poetic approach that delves into students meaning making processes It is a guide for teachers seeking innovative approaches to formative assessment promoting a holistic creative reflective and collaborative learning environment It challenges the limitations of traditional worksheets and quizzes urging educators to move beyond seeking restrictive answers and embrace students texts as pathways to understanding The authors put forward poetry as a vigorous tool and writing poetry as an act to foster deep learning across content areas Practical examples of acrostic poems haiku and pantoum demonstrate the adaptability of poetic forms to diverse subjects Through adaptable lesson plans that can be used across history math world languages ELA and science the book encourages intentional poetic writing to learn activities and explores how poetry might present itself as a short creative assessment tool that helps teachers see what their students know and can do while also offering them the space to make new meaning in their original poetry This book is a key resource for in service educators teaching grades 6 12      Poetics of Liveliness Ada Smailbegović, 2021-10-29 Can poetry act as an aesthetic amplification device akin to a microscope through which we can sense minute or nearly imperceptible phenomena such as the folding of molecules into their three dimensional shapes the transformations that make up the life cycle of a silkworm or the vaporous movements that constitute the ever shifting edges of clouds We tend to think of these subjects as reserved for science but as Ada Smailbegović argues twentieth and twenty first century writers have intermingled scientific methodologies with poetic form to reveal unfolding processes of change Their works can be envisioned as laboratories within which the methodologies of experimentation natural historical description and taxonomic classification allow poetic language to register the rhythms and durations of material transformation Poetics of Liveliness moves across scales to explore the realms of molecules fibers tissues and clouds It investigates works such as Christian B k s insertion of a poetic text into the DNA code of living bacteria in order to generate a new poem in the shape of a protein molecule Jen Bervin s considerations of silk fibers and their use in biomedicine Gertrude Stein s examination of brain tissues in medical school and its subsequent influence on her literary taxonomies of character and Lisa Robertson s studies of nineteenth century meteorology and the soft architecture of clouds In their attempt to understand physical processes unfolding within lively material worlds Smailbegović contends these poets have developed a distinctive materialist poetics Structured as a poetic cosmology akin to Lucretius s On the Nature of Things which begins at the atomic level and expands out to the vastness of the universe Poetics of Liveliness provides an innovative and surprising vision of the relationship between science and poetry      Celebrating Poetry Across the K-12 Curriculum Napoli, Mary, Day, Deanna, Ward, Barbara A., 2025-07-16 Poetry provides opportunities to explore the universal and common experiences that connect us as

human beings When teachers infuse poetry into their classroom it can foster compassion develop interdisciplinary connections and support literacy instruction However not all teachers use poetry in their classroom either because they are not aware of the value of poetry or because they have not had positive experiences with poetry Given the importance of sharing poetry with today s youth educators must feel confident in evaluating well written poetry and how to weave poetry from award winning poets to support interdisciplinary connections Celebrating Poetry Across the K 12 Curriculum aims to ensure that poetry for children is not neglected as part of the curriculum and to help educators feel more confident in their understanding of children s poetry its relevance to children s lives and its importance to supporting pedagogical connections Featuring interviews with well known poets this resource also showcases the latest pedagogical and scholarly research supporting the integration of poetry in the K 12 classroom Covering topics such as science content romanticism and diversity recognition this book is an excellent resource for educators classroom teachers literacy specialists librarians professionals researchers scholar academicians and more

Didactic Poetry of Greece, Rome and Beyond Lilah Grace Canevaro,Donncha O'Rourke,2019-12-01 Here a team of established scholars offers new perspectives on poetic texts of wisdom learning and teaching related to the great line of Greek and Latin poems descended from Hesiod In previous scholarship a drive to classify Greek and Latin didactic poetry has engaged with the near total absence in ancient literary criticism of explicit discussion of didactic as a discrete genre The present volume approaches didactic poetry from different perspectives the diachronic mapping the development of didactic through changing social and political landscapes from Homer and Hesiod to Neo Latin didactic and the comparative setting the Graeco Roman tradition against a wider backdrop including ancient near eastern and contemporary African traditions The issues raised include knowledge in its relation to power the cognitive strategies of the didactic text ethics and poetics the interplay of obscurity and clarity playfulness and solemnity the authority of the teacher

Contemporary Reconfigurations of American Literary Classics Betina Entzminger,2013 The number and popularity of novels that have overtly reconfigured aspects of classic American texts suggests a curious trend for both readers and writers an impulse to retell and reread books that have come to define

American culture This book argues that by revising canonical American literature contemporary American writers are re writing an American myth of origins creating one that corresponds to the contemporary writer s understanding of self and society Informed by cognitive psychology evolutionary literary criticism and poststructuralism Entzminger reads texts by canonical authors Poe Hawthorne Melville Alcott Twain Chopin and Faulkner and by the contemporary writers that respond to them In highlighting the construction and cognitive function of narrative in their own and in their antecedent texts contemporary writers highlight the fact that such use of narrative is universal and essential to human beings This book suggests that by revising the classic texts that compose our cultural narrative contemporary writers mirror the way human individuals consistently revisit and refigure the past through language via self narration in order to manage and understand experience

The Poetics of Late Latin Literature Jaś Elsner, Jesús Hernández Lobato, 2017 For a host of reasons traditionalist scholarship has failed to give a full and positive account of the formal aesthetic and religious transformations of ancient poetics in Late Antiquity This collection of new essays attempts to capture the vibrancy of the living ancient tradition reinventing itself in a new context in the hands of a series of great Latin writers of the fourth and fifth centuries AD

Fate of the Flesh Daniel Juan Gil, 2021-01-05 In the seventeenth century the ancient hope for the physical resurrection of the body and its flesh began an unexpected second life as critical theory challenging the notion of an autonomous self and driving early modern avant garde poetry As an emerging empirical scientific world view and a rising Cartesian dualist ontology transformed the ancient hope for the resurrection of the flesh into the fantasy of a soul or mind living on separately from any body literature complicated the terms of the debate Such poets as Donne Herbert Vaughan and Jonson picked up the discarded idea of the resurrection of the flesh and bent it from an apocalyptic future into the here and now to imagine the self already infused with the strange vibrant materiality of the resurrection body Fate of the Flesh explores what happens when seventeenth century poets posit a resurrection body within the historical person These poets see the resurrection body as the precondition for the social person s identities and forms of agency and yet as deeply other to all such identities and agencies an alien within the self that both enables and undercuts life as a social person This perspective leads seventeenth century poets to a compelling awareness of the unsettling materiality within the heart of the self and allows them to re imagine agency selfhood and the natural world in its light By developing a poetics that seeks a deranging materiality within the self these poets anticipate twentieth century avant garde poetics They frame their poems neither as simple representation nor as beautiful objects but as a form of social praxis that creates new communities of readers and writers assembled around a new experience of self as body mediated by poetry
