

I am Atticus Finch

I am a kind and understanding man
I wonder about how my children will grow up
I hear people criticize my parenting style
I see people being persecuted for their race and beliefs
I want a better world for my children
I am a kind and understanding man

I pretend to see my wife
I feel no hatred toward others
I touch the lives of those I defend in court
I worry that my children will not see a world where all men are treated as equals
I cry when I see injustice
I am a kind and understanding man

I understand that many people are not treated equally
I say to have courage and to see things through
I dream of a world without prejudice
I try to be a respectable parent and man
I hope I have taught my children right from wrong
I am a kind and understanding man
