Duffell,2008 In the hundred years since the last major history of English metre was published dramatic changes have occurred in both the way that poets versify in English and the way that scholars analyze verse Free verse is now firmly established alongside regular metre and linguistics statistics and cognitive theory have contributed to the analysis of both This new study covers the history of English metre up to the twenty first century and compares a variety of modern theories to explain it The result is a concise and up to date guide to metre for all students and teachers of English poetry Book Jacket Poets, Patrons, and Printers Cynthia J. Brown,2019-03-15 Cynthia J Brown explains why the advent of print in the late medieval period brought about changes in relationships among poets patrons and printers which led to a new conception of authorship Examining such paratextual elements of manuscripts as title pages colophons and illustrations as well as such literary strategies as experimentation with narrative voice Brown traces authors attempts to underscore their narrative presence in their works and to displace patrons from their role as sponsors and protectors of the book Her accounts of the struggles of poets including Jean Lemaire Jean Bouchet Jean Molinet and Pierre Gringore over the design printing and sale of their books demonstrate how authors secured the status of literary proprietor during the transition from the culture of script and courtly patronage to that of print capitalism Love to Write! (ENHANCED eBook) Cindy Barden,1995-03-01 Activities to stretch imaginations and acquire critical thinking skills Reproducible prose and poetry exercises for metaphors and similes limericks haiku letters editorials tall tales myths and legends An extensive Teacher Notes section literature references vocabulary and other extras So, You Want to Be a Writer? Vicki Hambleton,Cathleen Greenwood,2012-05 Walks young people through every step of the process from generating ideas to marketing a book and includes exercises to improve storytelling skills Museums and Their Communities Sheila E. R. Watson,2007 Using case studies drawn from all areas of museum studies Museums and their Communities explores the museums as a site of representation identity and memory and considers how it can influence its community Focusing on the museum as an institution and its social and cultural setting Sheila Watson examines how museums use their roles as informers and educators to empower or to ignore communities Looking at the current debates about the role of the museum she considers contested values in museum functions and examines provision power ownership responsibility and institutional issues This book is of great relevance for all disciplines as it explores and questions the role of the museum in modern society Edinburgh History of Reading Hammond Mary Hammond,2020-05-01 Reveals the experience of reading in many cultures and across the agesCovers reading practices from China in the 6th century BCE to

Britain in the 18th century
 Employs a range of methodologies from close textual analysis to quantitative data on book ownership
 Examines a wide range of texts and ways of reading them from English poetry and funeral elegies to translated books in Peru
 Challenges period based models of readership history
 Early Readers presents a number of innovative ways through which we might capture or infer traces of readers in cultures where most evidence has been lost
 It begins by investigating what a close analysis of extant texts from 6th century BCE China can tell us about contemporary reading practices explores the reading of medieval European women and their male medical practitioner counterparts traces readers across New Spain Peru the Ottoman Empire and the Iberian world between 1500 and 1800 and ends with an analysis of the surprisingly enduring practice of reading aloud

Composers in the Middle Ages Anne-Zoé Rillon-Marne, Gaël Saint-Cricq, 2024-11-19
 A reflection on the idea of the composer in the medieval period including a study of the individuals and groups active in the creation of medieval music
 The modern concept of the individual composer is central to accounts of Western music and continues to represent a critical field of research in musicology
 However this approach cannot be straightforwardly transposed to the Middle Ages as it does not reflect the complex creative realities of medieval composition and conflicts with the evidence from extant sources and documentation
 This collection the first full length study of the subject questions and revises the concept of the composer for the medieval period through five thematic parts
 Historiographical Critique Ascriptions Attributions Signatures Medieval Constructions of Authority and of the Authorial Persona
 The Composing Workshop and Composers as Communities
 Spanning a period from the seventh century to the early

Renaissance and taking in different cultural and geographical areas of Western Europe the essays examine a range of repertoires and fields plainchant Latin devotional song medieval motet trouv re song Ars nova drama and illuminated Gothic manuscripts in diverse contexts from clerical communities to princely courts and lay workshops Overall the new perspectives here shed fresh light on the musical practices and repertoires of the Middle Ages
