Acrostic Poem For Retiring Teachers:

Starting Over...Again Dana Reed,2011-04-25 As I was writing about my surprise unplanned retirement I came to realize I needed to go back into my past in order to answer my questions about my present and to move into my future I needed to find some peace about this latest transition I had reached the top of the pay scale and my principal needing to reinforce her power status recently pushed me into an early unplanned retirement which is the basis of this book Her constant harassment tore me into pieces but God was able to use this transition along with some of my others to reassemble the pieces and guide me into a new life Transitions may involve an end but they can also usher in a bright new beginning I hope and pray that experiencing how God and I have faced some of the disturbing transitions in my life might help you or a loved one through some of the challenges you face in life Poetry People Sylvia M. Vardell,2007-06-30 Dr Sylvia Vardell s new children s poetry reference book provides a comprehensive introduction to more than 60 contemporary young people s poets Focusing primarily on those who are still actively writing today the author includes poets appropriate for young children through young adults Each entry features brief biographical information highlights selected poetry books authored showcases awards won notes related Web sites and provides suggestions for making connections programming ideas related books and activities The book is ideal for librarians who serve children and young adults as well as for teachers and others who work with children and young adults Beginning with Arnold Adoff the list of poets is both impressive and informative A sample Francisco Alarcon Aileen Fisher Douglas Florian Nikki Giovanni Kristine O Connell George Jane Yolen Eloise Greenfield John Ciardi and many more Writing Power in Anglo-Saxon England Catherine A.
