RM Allyn C. Ryan, 2007 World War II had left the Philippines reeling from poverty unrest and lawlessness Rampant graft and corruption characterized the government of President Elpidio Quirino The farmers in Central Luzon resentful and angry over agrarian problems swelled the ranks of the Hukbalahap a contraction of the name in the vernacular Hukbong Bayan Laban sa Hapon literally translated to National Army Fighting the Japanese They were a rag tag guerrilla force that fought the Japanese occupation in 1941 1945 At the height of the Huk power the Philippine military weak and undisciplined was unable to counter the Huk attacks throughout the country The Huks relentless drive to bring down the government in the early 1950s threatened the Philippines with a communist takeover RM is the story of an extraordinary man who faced these problems against all odds His integrity and perseverance in trying to ameliorate the plight of the downtrodden and the helpless in Philippine society cast him in the limelight As a result he was elected on November 10 1953 as the third president of the Philippines after the United States had granted independence on July 4 1946 RM was the seventh elected leader since June 12 1898 when Emilio Aguinaldo became the first leader after the Filipino revolution against Spain in 1898 and the United States in 1899 1902 RM takes the reader back to his unpretentious beginnings in Zambales where all towns face the China Sea The province was generally poor and the people predominantly Ilocanos except for the northern and southern areas In the north lived a smattering of natives that spoke Zambal and to the south Tagalog because of the proximity to Bataan a Tagalog province RM's great grandparents were not Ilocanos however On his father's side his great grandmother Paulina Toleido she was blonde with blue eyes was a peninsular Castilian who lived in Makati Rizal Her husband Gregorio Magsaysay an educated man worked as a clerk in an early American firm Smith Bell Co One of their sons became the father of Exequiel Ramon's father On his mother's side the del Fierro families were mestizos an admixture of Spanish and native from Catbalogan Samar The Moro pirate attacks during the early part of the nineteenth century drove the del Fierro family northward where they settled in Zambales The Spanish mestizo Juan del Fierro and Maria Quimzon of Cavite became the parents of Perfecta the mother of Ramon RM was a target of several assassination attempts After Bataan and Corregidor fell April 9 and May 6 1942 the Japanese Kempei Tai secret police wanted him dead because of his guerrilla activities He worked closely with the USAFFE U S Armed Forces in the Far East and was subsequently appointed by General Charles P Hall as the military governor of Zambales Because of his sincerity in dealing with his guerrilla followers and what he did for the people during the war years everyone recognized his leadership abilities This paved the way for his entry into politics Monching as people came to call him saw and felt what poverty can do to people's lives compounded by what politicians promised and never lived up to The shenanigans of RM and his political friends leading up to his nomination as the Nacionalista Party standard bearer could be construed by his foes as machiavellian In many ways he was an uncommon politician who drew the ire of friend and foe alike the infighting of senators and congressmen in the Philippine Congress and the paradoxical support

Aleister Crowley, Sylvester Viereck, Literature, Lust, and the Great War Patrick J. Quinn, 2021-09-28 This book explores the lives of two writers one born in Germany Viereck and one born in England Crowley who were both influenced by decadent French writers such as Baudelaire and Mirbeau and English poets such as Swinburne and Wilde They both wrote decadent poetry early in their careers before becoming known in literary circles as two of the most wicked writers in America Viereck and the world Crowley By their twenties their reputations as rebels against the restrictive and stifled cultures they inhabited were firmly established Both men enjoyed breaking with the status quo by writing poetry short stories and plays with exotic scenes that celebrated the beauty of the female body Both writers were captivated by the femme fatale and her deleterious effect on her male victims robbing them of their opportunity for transcendence into a spiritual realm Their work especially their love poetry their science fiction works dealing with vampires and articles and essays concerning the onset of the Great War are still very readable today What is also intriguing is that in 1915 both men were working together in New York where Viereck was the editor of two pro German magazines The Fatherland and The International Searching for an editorial position at that time Crowley learned about an opening and was hired by Viereck There is speculation that Crowley's discovery of the job opening for these pro German magazines was a clever plan on the part of the British secret service to place one of their agents inside the German spy network in America of which Viereck was a key player Propaganda intrigue cover ups and the American declaration of war on Germany all make this alliance between the two very decadent poets and perhaps spies or even double agents worth knowing more about
