

The Crucible Act 1 Study Guide

Directions: In order to prepare for your Act 1 quiz, complete the following questions. Be as detailed as possible in your responses.

PLOT Summary:

The Reverend Parris awakens, dancing in the forest at night. Now two of them (Betty Parris and Ruth Putnam) have fallen into trance-like illnesses. When questioned, Abigail Williams denies practicing witchcraft, but after talking with the other girls, her story changes. She admits to "conjuring," but blames Tituba, Parris' slave, who in turn accuses others. In reality, Abigail had an affair with John Proctor and wants his wife dead. Two conflicting sides emerge in the community, represented by the Putnams, who hope to prove witchcraft, and by Proctor and Rebecca Nurse, who are skeptical about accusations of witchcraft.

Characters to Know:

Rev. Parris - Betty Parris - Ann Putnam - Rebecca Nurse - Tituba - John Proctor - Thomas Putnam - Giles Corey - Abigail - Mary Warren - Ruth Putnam - Reverend John Hale

Karolides, 2013-04-15 This text based on Louise M Rosenblatt's transactional model of literature focuses on the application of transactional reader response theory in the classroom It grows from frequent requests from secondary school and college teachers for teaching suggestions on how to put theory into practice This is not a What should I do on Monday cookbook but an expression of the practice of theory in college and secondary school classrooms The chapters portray a spectrum of strategies including biopoems expressive and imaginative writing journal writing readers theater role playing and unsent letters using as examples individual works from several genres Recognizing that teachers who may have been trained in other theories and methodologies may be hesitant about their quite different role and expectations in the reader centered classroom the authors provide stepping stones to develop readiness and confidence suggestions and insights to ease the transition to the transactional model of teaching and learning Pedagogical features An explanatory introduction to each section defines its orientation and describes the content and direction of the chapters it contains. Invitations elicit engagement of readers with concepts, attitudes, or strategies presented in the chapters; they invite readers as individuals or members of a small group to consider ideas or to practice a strategy among other activities in order to enhance understandings. A glossary defines key concepts and strategies discussed in the text. A bibliography provides an extensive list of resources: books and journal articles, both theoretical and applied. New in the second edition: Six new chapters; three deal with the roles of film as literature in the English classroom and three with enhancing multicultural understandings. Updates and revisions to several chapters that appeared in the first edition. Invitations new in this edition have been added to focus and expand readers' thinking.

Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 38, 2018 Habib Chaudhury, Frank Oswald, 2018-12-28 Through the autobiographical perspectives of 16 preeminent researchers and scholars of Environmental Gerontology, this state-of-the-art Annual Review critically examines the broad range of topics that comprise this interdisciplinary field. The writings of these individuals, who have contributed to and shaped the growth of the field over the past three-plus decades, trace the growth and evolution of Environmental Gerontology and provide understanding and insights on the role of environments for older adults and an aging society at multiple levels. The book examines the origins and growth of Environmental Gerontology; how the personal influences and professional choices of each author are linked to its development; the contextual factors influencing its biographical, intellectual evolution and its potential implications for an aging society. The Review encompasses research and scholarship in diverse scales, contexts of the physical built environment; diversity of disciplinary backgrounds represented by related social sciences, health sciences, and environmental design; basic, theoretical, and applied; policy-oriented research; and more. Key Features: Promotes a critical understanding of the state of science and art in Environmental Gerontology; Examines the origin, evolution, development, and future perspective of the field through the unique autobiographical lens of its worldwide pioneers; Represents theoretical, substantive, applied perspectives through the reflections of preeminent scholars; Focuses on intellectual development of pioneers in the field.

Reading and Writing the Electronic Book Catherine Marshall, 2022-06-01 Developments over the last twenty years have fueled considerable speculation about the future of the book and of reading itself. This book begins with a gloss over the history of electronic books, including the social and technical forces that have shaped their development. The focus then shifts to reading and how we interact with what we read. Basic issues such as legibility, annotation, and navigation are examined as aspects of reading that ebooks inherit from their print legacy. Because reading is fundamentally communicative, I also take a closer look at the sociality of reading: how we read in a group and how we share what we read. Studies of reading and ebook use are integrated throughout the book, but Chapter 5 goes meta to explore how a researcher might go about designing his or her own reading-related studies. No book about ebooks is complete without an explicit discussion of content preparation, i.e., how the electronic book is written. Hence, Chapter 6 delves into the underlying representation of ebooks and efforts to create and apply markup standards to them This chapter also examines how print genres have made the journey to digital and how some emerging digital genres might be realized as ebooks Finally Chapter 7 discusses some beyond the book functionality how can ebook platforms be transformed into portable personal libraries In the end my hope is that by the time the reader reaches the end of this book he or she will feel equipped to perform the next set of studies write the next set of articles invent new ebook functionality or simply engage in a heated argument with the stranger in seat 17C about the future of reading
