Musical Theatre Auditions and Casting Neil Rutherford,2012-06-21 Musical theatre is a tough and over crowded industry Yet despite the huge competition many performers find auditioning difficult with little knowledge of what the directors creative teams and producers are looking for or how to win the panel over with their unique talent As a leading international casting director Neil Rutherford has seen thousands of hopefuls audition over the years. Uniquely, he also understands what it is like to audition from his years as a professional actor in musical theatre. This book provides a unique perspective on the musical theatre audition process and how to improve the chances of landing a role. With wit, humour, and insight, Neil Rutherford guides the reader through the crucial elements of musical theatre auditions, opening up the process of casting and auditioning to the thousands of hopefuls trying to secure work in this industry every year, as well as anyone involved in musical theatre. With a foreword by Tony award-winning director Bartlett Sher, the book also contains contributions from some of the world's leading directors and musical directors, including Sir Richard Eyre and Jerry Mitchell, adding further valuable insight from those at the centre of the musical theatre world. This book is a vital tool for anyone hoping to improve their audition chances and survive in the world of musical theatre.

A Princess Found Tracy Trivas, 2025-08-22 Sarah Culberson was adopted one year after her birth by a loving white West Virginian couple and was raised in the United States with little knowledge of her ancestry. Though raised in a loving family, Sarah wanted to know more about the birth parents that had given her up. In 2004, she hired a private investigator to track down her biological father. When she began her search, she never imagined what she would discover or where that information would lead her: she was related to African royalty, a ruling Mende family in Sierra Leone, and that she is considered a mahalo, the child of a Paramount Chief with the status like a princess. What followed was an unforgettably emotional journey of discovery of herself, a father she never knew, and the spirit of a war-torn nation. A Princess Found is a powerful, intimate revelation of her quest across the world to learn of the chieftom she could one day call her own.

A Young Actor Prepares Jeff Alan-Lee, 2021-11-15 In A Young Actor Prepares, Jeff Alan-Lee masterfully delivers kids and teens acting classes presented as plays in script form. The classes are based on actual semesters at the Young Actor's Studio in Los Angeles and provide step-by-step approaches to help children and teenagers portray complex characters and tackle emotionally challenging roles. For over thirty years, Alan-Lee has worked with thousands of young people, teaching the work presented in this book. His work has been the springboard for award-winning artists in acting, directing, playwriting, screenwriting, and music. Inspired by Stanislavski's An Actor Prepares, Alan-Lee has developed engaging and exciting ways to create great acting using a unique version of the Stanislavski system that he reworked for the young actor. It's a fun and easy method to help children and teens learn to apply Stanislavski-based exercises and use their own life experiences, imagination, and emotions to create authentic acting and performances. The book is for kids and teens, as well as teachers and parents. Kids and teens can find relatable characters and gain a deeper ability to make their acting shine. Teachers will get a unique look at how to handle a multitude of personalities while teaching the real work to children as young as eight. Parents will discover an actor's process that can lead their kids to greater self-esteem and creativity in all the arts. Please Hear What I'm Not Saying Charles C. Finn, 2011-11-22 Standing at that magical place where sand meets sea, you likely have imagined putting a message in a bottle, consigning it to the waves, hoping it might some day reach another shore, and then not only be read but incredibly across space and time make a difference in other lives now connected to your own It has happened to me and I must sing of it In the autumn of 1966 I let the waves carry off a poem passed around to students family and friends no need for even my name on it Its message was simple Keep heart you are not alone love stronger than strong walls will come helping your heart in hiding grow wings feeble perhaps at first but wings Word astoundingly began to come back in 1969 and has continued since that Please Hear What Im Not Saying was indeed reaching other shores across space and time was indeed making a difference in other lives What follows attests to the power of words from the heart to touch other hearts sometimes even to change other lives Read on You too will sing of it
