Homeschooling: The Primary Years Shirley Erwee, 2015-07-13 An invaluable guide for families embarking on the journey of educating their primary school age children at home One of the biggest challenges for homeschooling parents is to break away from the model of education they received in school and to re educate themselves about Education as the conventional classroom methodology is not the model of pedagogy teaching that works best in the homeschool scenario This book offers tried and tested alternatives that will enrich and facilitate learning rather than hinder the process of educating young minds Having been part of the first generation of South African homeschoolers the author shares her knowledge plus tips and advice she has learnt along the way in order to help others make good choices and avoid common pitfalls and costly mistakes

Intruders Mohale Mashigo, 2018-09-01 Orphan sisters chase monsters of urban legend in Bloemfontein At a busy taxi rank a woman kills a man with her shoe A genomicist is accused of playing God when she creates a fatherless child Intruders is a collection that explores how it feels not to belong These are stories of unremarkable people thrust into extraordinary situations by events beyond their control With a unique and memorable touch Mohale Mashigo explores the everyday ills we live with and wrestle constantly all the while allowing hidden energies to emerge and play out their unforeseen consequences Intruders is speculative fiction at its best for multicultural literature Behind Closed Doors in White South Africa D. Russell,1997-10-15 The intent in this book is to tear away the veil of secrecy that surrounds incestuous abuse in white South Africa by presenting five in depth personal accounts of this heinous form of sexual exploitation as told by the survivors Each of these accounts includes an analysis of important incest related issues raised by the survivor s story Another objective is to explore the connections between the often cruel sexual exploitation of girls by their white male relatives and the brutal exploitation of black people by white men in South Africa Lahlekile Doreen Merle Foster,2007 The South African nursing experience over 90 years has been adequately documented and may be found on the shelves of public libraries university libraries and hospital libraries as well as between the pages of struggle literature such as Critical Health This book does not attempt academic analysis per se rather is it an authentic oral and written account of the experiences which shaped the careers of black nurses The sample of respondents was picked at random across the country as time and private purse allowed They were assured anonymity in that only first or nicknames would be used as a rule except where a surname carries historical significance In 1994 when the winds of changes blew democracy across the political landscape the South African nursing profession too was gusted along the road of revolution It was no longer a question of whether change would come but when Nonceba Lubanga in her chapter Nursing in South Africa has been given a detailed account of the struggle of black nurses referring to them as the unsung heroes of the African struggle in South Africa P 4 of cover Register of Current Research in the Humanities in South Africa.
