Confronting Educational Policy in Neoliberal Times Stephanie Chitpin, John P Portelli, 2019-01-08 This volume explores how educational policy is changing as a result of neoliberal restructuring and how these issues affect educators practice Evidence based chapters present a sharp analysis of neoliberal education policy while also offering suggestions and recommendations for future action to bring about change consistent with more robust understandings of democracy Covering issues relating to historical context philosophical assumptions policy implementation accountability teacher professionalism and standardization Confronting Educational Policy in Neoliberal Times critically engages the ways micro and macro neoliberal politics shapes the purposes and implementation of schooling

Principles and Practice of Mathematics Chris Arney, Robert Bumcrot, Paul Campbell, Joseph Gallian, Frank Giordano, Rochelle Wilson Meyer, Michael Olinick, Alan Tucker, 1996-09-19 This text represents a new entry level course in mathematics for students in programs such as mathematics the sciences and engineering which require additional courses in mathematics With enough material for a two semester course the text is written at approximately the level of introductory calculus Principles and Practice of Mathematics was developed over a four year period under the direction of COMAP with NSF support It is an alternative point of entry into the undergraduate mathematics curriculum one which presents for students a wide spectrum of the contemporary world of mathematics By emphasizing the breadth and variety of modern mathematical inquiry and applications the text provides a view of the subject that is not experienced by students in the traditional calculus course The author team and advisors were selected for their experience with undergraduate education Among our authors are several who have written successful textbooks The entire project has evolved under the editorial supervision of veteran COMAP author Walter Meyer Adolph University

Autoethnographies from the Neoliberal Academy Jess Moriarty, 2019-11-06 The shift to a neoliberal agenda has for many academics intensified the pressure and undermined the pleasure that their work can and does bring This book contains stories from a range of autoethnographers seeking to challenge traditional academic discourse by providing personal and evocative writings that detail moments of profound transformation and change The book focuses on the experiences of one academic and the stories that her dialogues with other autoethnographers generated in response to the neoliberal shift in higher education Chapters use a variety of genres to provide an innovative text that identifies strategies to challenge neoliberal governance Autoethnography is as a methodology that can be used as form of resistance to this cultural shift by exploring effects on individual academic and personal lives The stories are necessarily emotional personal important It is hoped that they will promote other ways of navigating higher education that do not align with neoliberalism and instead offer more holistic and human ways of being an academic This book highlights the impact of neoliberalism on academics freedom to teach and think freely With 40% of academics in the UK considering other forms of employment this book will be of interest to existing and future academics who want to survive the new environment and maintain their motivation and passion for academic life

Professional Learning, Induction and Critical

Reflection R. Henderson, Karen Noble, 2015-03-20 How should a teacher be taught This book suggests that it is necessary to move away from the highly technicist and one size fits all approaches to teaching in order to instil confidence throughout a teacher's training Instead a pedagogy of induction should engage the student in their profession from the outset of their studies Handbook of Effective Inclusive Schools James McLeskey, Fred Spooner, Bob Algozzine, Nancy, L.

Waldron, 2014-05-16 Over the last decade the educational context for students with disabilities has significantly changed primarily as a result of mandates contained in NCLB and IDEA The purpose of this book is to summarize the research literature regarding how students might be provided classrooms and schools that are both inclusive and effective Inclusive schools are defined as places where students with disabilities are valued and active participants in academic and social activities and are given supports that help them succeed Effectiveness is addressed within the current movement toward multi tiered systems of support and evidence based practices that meet the demands of high stakes accountability

Approaching Architecture Miguel Guitart, 2022-09-30 The study of the architectural discipline suffers from an increasing disconnect between its teaching and its professional practice In this edited collection 18 architectural voices address this disconnect by reflecting on the ways in which they exercise the architectural discipline in three ways research teaching and practice This book argues that the totality of activities encompassed by the architectural profession can be best fulfilled when reconsidering the critical interactions between these three fields in the everyday exercise of the profession Split into three parts Architecture as Research Architecture as Pedagogy and Architecture as Practice each section focuses on one of these three dimensions while establishing continuity with the other two In doing so the book not only favors a more fulfilling interaction between academia and the profession but also reinforces the implementation of design theory and research in everyday teaching and practice The contributions come from 18 teams of architects operating from geographically diverse locations including Pezo von Ellrichshausen in Chile Kengo Kuma Associates in Japan Barclay Crousse in Peru Shift in Iran Heinrich Wolff in South Africa and People's Architecture Office in China opening the design conversation to larger contexts and framing continuity and inclusion in time Written for students instructors and practitioners alike the inspiring reflections in this volume encourage readers to grow as architects and play an instrumental role in transforming the built environment

Critical Literacy with Adolescent English Language Learners Jennifer Alford, 2021-05-24 This book examines critical literacy within language and literacy learning with a particular focus on English as an Additional Language learners in schools who traditionally are not given the same exposure to critical literacy as native English speakers An important and innovative addition to extant literature this book explains how English language teachers understand critical literacy and enact it in classrooms with adolescent English language learners from highly diverse language backgrounds This book brings together the study of two intersecting phenomena how critical literacy is constructed in English language education policy for adolescent English language learners internationally and how critical literacy is understood and enacted by teachers amid the so called literacy crisis in neoliberal eduscapes The work traces the ways critical literacy has been represented in English language education policy for adolescents in five contexts Australia England Sweden Canada and the United States Drawing on case study research it provides a comparative analysis of how policy in these countries constructs critical literacy and how this then positions critical engagement as a focus for teachers of English language learners Empirically based and accessibly written this timely book will be of interest to a wide range of academics in the fields of adolescent literacy education English language learning and teaching education policy analysis and critical discourse studies It will also appeal to teachers post graduate students and language education policy makers

Atlas of the Food System Teresa Marat-Mendes, Sara Silva Lopes, João Cunha Borges, Patrícia Bento d'Almeida, 2022-06-09 This book is a visual guide to the territorial dynamics operating within a territory The reading of such dynamics is fundamental in understanding the role of food in cities This atlas provides a refreshing approach to the study of the city and of its territory expanded from the perspective of the food system This book illustrates the impacts of urban planning options on the function of the contemporary Food System of the Lisbon Region while disclosing its associated urban form solutions It provides a possible methodology for the reading of the food system based on an analysis of planning instruments and their morphological outcomes both in the territory but also on the various built forms which have resulted over time A key focus of the atlas is exploring how planning has regulated the evolution of the Lisbon Region since the 20th century and its implications on the food system The atlas results from an exhaustive survey and research work conducted in Lisbon Metropolitan Area for a research project SPLACH Spatial Planning for Change for the past 3 years in terms of the analysis of its Food System and Urban Planning aiming to inform the delineation of planning strategies towards a sustainable urban environment It is an important reference for planners architects planning and architecture students as well as municipal technicians and the general public as it provides a refreshing and useful source of information to support further readings about the food system and its relations to urban planning instruments and urban form solutions Furthermore it builds a contemporary reading about possible solutions to promote a sustainable transition of the current food systems while enhancing the strategic role of planning and urban form
