Why Couples Fight Mira Kirshenbaum, 2021-01-26 How do two well-meaning people who genuinely care about each other end up in a damaged, unsatisfying relationship? Every couple faces conflict. Most of the time, the root of the problem is that we're not getting our needs met. And most of the time, we first try to remedy this with reasonable requests or hints and a kind tone. But when that fails, we feel disempowered, which leads to sighs, eye rolls, silences, subtle put-downs, insults, and even threats. These are power moves. And while we often use them without realizing it and without intention, the result is the same: our partner feels disempowered and will try to re-empower themselves. And so the endless and endlessly destructive dynamic takes hold. Relationship expert Mira Kirshenbaum, bestselling author of Too Good
