Collaborative Video Production Joe P. Gaston, Byron Havard, 2023-07-10 Today's teachers are charged with not only finding meaningful ways to integrate student use of technology in their classrooms but also ways to more authentically assess student learning. The advancements in video technology have made classroom video production activities both affordable and feasible. Collaborative Video Production CVP is a method of increasing higher order thinking engagement collaboration and technology through the creation of video. The information provided in this book about the seven step process of CVP stems from both field research and practical classroom application. The video production process and the corresponding activities that are described by Joe P. Gaston and Byron Havard have been successfully conducted with students from elementary grades through higher ed. The focus of this book is on how to manage and facilitate CVP projects in the classroom. Educators who are interested in more authentically engaging and assessing students' understanding of academic content will find this book to be of great benefit.

Preparing 21st Century Teachers for Teach Less, Learn More (TLLM) Pedagogies Kumar, Pradeep, Keppell, Michael James, Lim, Chee Leong, 2019-12-27 The current trend of learner centeredness in education has been challenging many of the current ways of working especially in higher education institutions. This rapid change in educational institutions demands educators acquire new sets of skills via continuous reflective practices. Hence educators in higher education institutions are actively involved in research driven teaching and learning practices. This change of role from mere content delivery to learning facilitators could be better achieved through a strong research driven community of practice.
