and responses of real children are never far from the page

TES Innovative resourceful and thoroughly researched a challenge to existing and emerging early childhood professionals

Contemporary Issues in Early Childhood Promoting Children's Learning from Birth to Five supports early years professionals as they develop new practices to promote young children's learning

This second edition fully reflects the enormous changes in early childhood education and care since the publication of the first edition

Retaining its successful focus on literacy and mathematical development as key exemplars of promoting young children's learning the book considers new ways of working with parents promoting inter professional collaboration and achieving sustainable systematic change in children's services

The second edition Draws on current research in early literacy and mathematical thinking

Focuses on multiprofessional practice showing how practitioners who work from evidence across professional boundaries are able to give strong interactive and sensitive support to young children and their parents

Takes into account policies and practices such as Every Child Matters the Primary Strategy and Children's Centres

Includes updated material on aspects of leadership and on the role of the Senior Practitioner in developing innovative services for children and their families

Explores the importance of personal social and emotional development in the curriculum for under fives

Working from the basis that children learn most readily in contexts where parents and professionals are keen to learn the authors help early childhood professionals to meet the challenges of reshaping children's services

This is key reading for all early childhood professionals and students

Learning Through Talk in the Early Years Elizabeth Sharp, 2005-09-14

This book is aimed at class teachers of Reception to Year 3 seeking ideas to develop their pupils speaking and listening skills

The author describes each activity in an easy to follow format with links to the relevant curriculum targets

The most valuable part of the book is the commentary from the author's own teaching experience

This provides some useful insights such as the fact that the flow of children's ideas was improved while they had a discussion while engaged in drawing

The book is easy to read

It provides a practical guide to some tried and tested speaking and listening activities which may be useful for the beginning Foundation or Key Stage 1 teacher

Special Do the children in your class need help with language and listening skills

Lots of ideas and suggestions for activities using and encouraging talk in the classroom make this book a lively practical guide to encouraging young children to develop their verbal reasoning skills and to communicate more effectively

There is advice on how to tie in these activities with the various curriculum subjects and the following are covered setting up a talk corner using story bags and story boxes using Circle Time and playing games to encourage talk

In each activity there are directions for helping children with Special Educational Needs working with Teaching Assistants TAs and other adults in the classroom planning and assessing work and finding suitable resources

A selection of photocopiable material is included and all the suggestions and ideas in the book have been tried and tested by the author in her own classroom

The focus of this book is on young children aged 5 to 8 but the activities can be adapted to suit those younger or older
