

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Political Trust and the Politics of Security Engagement Benjamin Barton,2017-09-13 The EU and China are often characterised as parties whose bilateral political differences still remain too large to bridge so that they have failed to convert rhetorical promises into tangible results of cooperation particularly with regards to the field of international security Yet in terms of their bilateral interaction on security risk management in Africa EU and Chinese naval officers jointly brought down the number of successful Somali pirate attacks in the Gulf of Aden and to a lesser extent were jointly involved in seeking a resolution to the lingering conflict in Darfur This book asks how we can make sense as a whole of this relatively sudden shift in regards to the dealings between their respective officials on the topic of security risk management It argues that the outcomes of Sino European bilateral dealings on this topic are above all determined by the ability inability of these officials to build political trust as a complex and cognitive social phenomenon Consequently the book applies an innovative conceptual framework on political trust to explain why EU and Chinese officials bridged their endemic political differences to practically cooperate on Somali piracy but were unable to do so when it came to their interaction on Darfur To conclude it examines the longer term impact of this bilateral trust building process by covering more recent examples of bilateral engagement in Libya and Mali and aims to show that although this trust building process may be case specific ramifications may go beyond the realm of their bilateral dealings on security matters in Africa to impact wider issues of international security This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of African and Chinese politics EU politics security and maritime studies and more broadly of international relations and to governmental actors

Territorial Disputes in the South China Sea J. Huang,A. Billo,2014-12-09 Heightened tensions in the South China Sea have raised serious concerns about the dangers of conflict in this region as a result of unresolved complex territorial disputes This volume offers detailed insights into a range of country perspectives addressing the historical legal structural regional and multilateral dimensions of these disputes

Food Security Governance Nora McKeon,2014-12-17 This book fills a gap in the literature by setting food security in the context of evolving global food governance Today s food system generates hunger alongside of food waste burgeoning health problems massive greenhouse gas emissions Applying food system analysis to review how the international community has addressed food issues since World War II this book proceeds to explain how actors link up in corporate global food chains and in the local food systems that feed most of the world s population It unpacks relevant paradigms from productivism to food sovereignty and highlights the significance of adopting a rights based approach to solving food problems The author describes how communities around the world are protecting their access to resources and building better ways of producing and accessing food and discusses the reformed Committee on World Food Security a uniquely inclusive global policy forum and how it could be supportive of efforts from the base The book concludes by identifying terrains on which work is needed to adapt the practice of the democratic public sphere and accountable governance to a global dimension and extend its authority to the world of markets and corporations This book will be of interest to students of food security global governance development studies and critical security studies in general

Not Going it Alone:

The Dynamics of EU-IMF Interaction over 20 Years of Monetary Unification Niklas Manhart,2014-04-15 Research

Paper postgraduate from the year 2014 in the subject Politics Topic European Union grade 1 5 London School of Economics European Institute course MPhil PhD Programme language English abstract This paper assesses the dynamics of EU IMF interaction over the course of European monetary unification Thereby it adds to a growing body of literature on the external dimension of EU policy making To illustrate how EU IMF relations have changed over the last 20 years the paper first finds that member states remain the primary but not the only actors Second it provides a descriptive account of EU IMF relations in the observed period both in its institutional and functional dimension Its main finding is that institutional and functional interaction have not developed in parallel i e that the increase in day to day engagement between the IMF and the EU through the activities of surveillance lending and technical assistance in particular as a result of the sovereign debt crisis in the euro zone has not corresponded to formalization of EU Fund relations In Their Place Stephen Crossley,2017-08-20

This book critiques how impoverished communities are represented by politicians the media academics and policy makers and how our understanding of these neighbourhoods is often misleadingly shaped by these stories The alleged behavioural failings of poor people have attracted a great deal of academic and political scrutiny Spatial inequalities are also well documented and poor neighbourhoods have been extensively researched However other spaces have been re imagined in different ways by politicians academics journalists and social reformers These imagined geographies include exoticised slums cities being reclaimed by nature the street and domestic spaces like the kitchen or even the bedroom In Their Place highlights how these spaces are represented and how these representations are deployed manipulating political and media discourses around the individuals and communities who live there These distortions are often used to keep people in their place by making sure everyone knows where the poor belong This book will reorient those interested in human geography away from deprived neighbourhoods and back to the foundational spaces where political decisions and poverty are made in Britain today Questions and answers for job interview Offshore Oil & Gas Rigs Petrogav International Oil & Gas Training Center,2020-07-01 The job interview is probably the most important step you will take in your job search journey Because it s always important to be prepared to respond effectively to the questions that employers typically ask at a job interview Petrogav International has prepared this eBooks that will help you to get a job in oil and gas industry Since these questions are so common hiring managers will expect you to be able to answer them smoothly and without hesitation This eBook contains 288 questions and answers for job interview and as a BONUS web addresses to 289 video movies for a better understanding of the technological process This course covers aspects like HSE Process Mechanical Electrical and Instrumentation Control that will enable you to apply for any position in the Oil and Gas Industry
