Reconciliation Tobias Faix, Johannes Reimer, G. J. van Wyngaard, 2021-01-27 Hardly any other topic is as important for the coexistence of mankind as the question of justice and reconciliation In this volume we want to examine this important question from different interdisciplinary and international perspectives in order to develop an overall understanding that will contribute to reconciliation in various cultural and religious fields of conflict in the world Particular attention will be paid to the theological perspective on reconciliation in which justice and restoration of relationships play a central role Bulletin ,1993-03 Language in South Africa Victor N. Webb, 2002-01-01 A discussion of the role which language or more properly languages can perform in the reconstruction and development of South Africa The approach followed in this book is characterised by a numbers of features its aim is to be factually based and theoretically informed Community Nutrition for Developing Countries Norman J. Temple ,Nelia Steyn, 2016-03-31 Nutrition textbooks used by universities and colleges in developing countries have very often been written by scholars who live and work in North America or the United Kingdom And while the research and information they present is sound the nutrition related health challenges with which developing countries must grapple differ considerably from those found in highly industrialized Western nations The primary aim of Community Nutrition for Developing Countries is to provide a book that meets the needs of nutritionists and other health professionals living and working in developing countries Written by both scholars and practitioners the volume draws on their wealth of knowledge experience and understanding of nutrition in developing countries to provide nutrition professionals with all the information they require Each chapter addresses a specific nutrition challenge currently faced by developing countries such as food security food safety disease prevention maternal health and effective nutrition policy In addition the volume serves as an invaluable resource for those developing and implementing nutrition education programmes With an emphasis on nutritional education as a means to prevent disease and effectively manage health disorders it is the hope of the nearly three dozen contributors to this work that it will enhance the health and well being of low income populations throughout the world The State of Food Insecurity in Gaborone, Botswana Acquah, Benjamin, Kapunda, Stephen, 2016-10-17 The results of AFSUN's study of the food security situation of the poor in Gaborone show that not everyone is benefitting from Botswana's strong and growing economy and that many of the urban poor experience extremely high levels of food insecurity. The study, which formed part of AFSUN's baseline survey of 11 Southern African cities, collected data on a broad range of issues that affect household food insecurity and found that four out of five households in the surveyed areas in Gaborone reported severe or moderate food insecurity. Only 18% were either food secure or mildly food insecure. Income level is a particularly important determinant of food insecurity as most households access food from the marketplace rather than grow their own. The impacts of chronic food insecurity on Gaborone's population are likely to be considerable unless this problem is urgently addressed. The problem is in some sense invisible because there appears to be no shortage of food in the shops and on the streets of this booming city. The challenge is not one of food supply but food accessibility and food quality. Given that Botswana is one of the most rapidly urbanizing and most urbanized countries in Africa, its example has wider importance for the general study of urban food security on the continent. Government

Annual Report of the Republic of Venda Venda (South Africa), 1984 Assisted Reproductive Technologies in the Global South and North Virginie Rozée, Sayeed Unisa, 2016-07-15 Assisted Reproductive Technologies in the Global South and North critically analyses the political and social frameworks of Assisted Reproductive Technology (ART) and its impact in different countries. In the context of a worldwide social pressure to conceive, particularly for women, this collection explores the effect of the development of ARTs, growing globalisation and reproductive medicalization on global societies. Providing an overview of the issues surrounding ART both in the Global South and North, this book analyses ART inequalities, commonalities and specificities in various countries, regions and on the transnational scene. From a multidisciplinary perspective and drawing on multisite studies, it highlights some new issues relating to ART, e.g. egg freezing, surrogacy and discusses some older issues regarding infertility and its medical treatment, e.g. in vitro fertilisation, childless stigmatisation and access to treatment. This book aims to redress the balance between what is known about Assisted Reproductive Technologies in the Global North and how the issue is investigated in the Global South. It aims to draw out the global similarities in the challenges that ARTs bring between these different areas of the world. It will appeal to scholars and students in the social sciences, medicine, public health, health policy, women's and gender studies and demography.

Research in Chemistry Education Liliana Mammìno, Jan Apotheker, 2021-05-17 This volume emphasizes the role of chemical education for development and in particular for sustainable development in Africa by sharing experiences among specialists across the African continent and with specialists from other continents. It considers all areas and levels of chemistry education, gives specific attention to known major challenges and encourages explorations of novel approaches. The chapters in this book describe new teaching approaches, approach explorations and in-class activities, analyse educational challenges and possible ways of addressing them and explore cross discipline possibilities and their potential benefits for chemistry education This makes the volume an up to date compendium for chemistry educators and educational researchers worldwide

Revisiting Ethnolinguistic Vitality Natasha E. Ravyse, 2021-12-28 This book examines traditional theories of linguistic vitality in the context of subcultural languages It argues that traditional methods of investigating linguistic vitality are according to existing literature not as reliable as they appear and therefore limited in their testability The author looks at themes such as the relationships between language and culture ethnicity within the scope of sociolinguistics and the notion of ideolinguistic vitality where traditional views intersect with more contextually current ones She also highlights the importance of studying the nature and principles of subcultural languages which help better inform our understanding of the superdiverse linguistic world The volume makes a major contribution to modern sociolinguistics by offering a detailed account of developing a unique measuring instrument to gauge the vitality of subcultural languages which is applicable to more than just subcultural linguistics An indispensable text in the study of ethnolinguistic vitality the book will be of interest to students and researchers of sociolinguistics applied linguistics identity theory philology language and literature cultural studies and postcolonial studies

African American Middle Grade Males Linda W. Washington, 2012-10-12 This insightful book gives suggestions on increasing academic rigor of the middle school male student increasing consistent student attendance and decreasing discipline referrals This book gives situational examples and possible suggestions to help single parents teachers administrators board members and the male student to overcome obstacles to be successful Washington believes that bonding should initially take place early in the relationship of the teacher to student and student to teacher Much like a client coming to a store for specific items the store owner has to get to know his customer in order to effectively serve this individual for continued customer satisfaction The same principles apply for teachers getting to know their students Oftentimes this notion is not developed because of constant new initiatives being introduced to teachers without lasting results Hence mentoring of students can eliminate many problems schools face Using the suggestions offered in this book will cause increase academic performance and attendance while decreasing discipline referrals tremendously

Internationalisation of Higher Education and Global Mobility Bernhard Streitwieser, 2014-05-12 Continuous and rapid developments in global higher education today more than ever before present new questions greater challenges and vast new opportunities for institutions policy makers scholars and students alike This book is a collection of studies and essays by many of the leading experts in international higher education who share their analysis of current trends and the implications they see for present and future policy and practice The volume is organized into three sections that address first global supranational concerns in internationalization and mobility second focus on specific cases in Europe the Middle East the United States Africa Asia and Latin America and third share profiles of individual institutions practitioners and participants involved in uniquely shaping international education in their everyday practice The intention of this book is to expand the scope of research in the field of Comparative and International Education to facilitate theory development to influence policy formation and most of all to inform anyone fascinated by the evolving and dynamic processes related to educational internationalization and global mobility This book will be a valuable information source for scholars policy makers and students intent on understanding the wide scope of factors that today are shaping the fluid and changing global higher education landscape
