Seeking Truth in International TV News Vivien Marsh, 2023-03-17 This book puts CGTN (formerly CCTV News) and the BBC's international television news head-to-head, interrogating competing truths in the exacting business of news reporting. Written by a media scholar and former long-serving BBC News journalist, Seeking Truth in International TV News asks if China's English language television news programmes are little more than state propaganda and if the BBC can be viewed as a universal news standard to which all other broadcasters should aspire. Over 8 years of Xi Jinping's rule, it investigates how the international TV news channels of CGTN and the BBC reported on Chinese politics, protests in Hong Kong, disasters in China, Africa, and insurgency, and its suppression in Xinjiang. The comparison reveals uneven editorial imperatives at the Chinese broadcaster and raises questions about the BBC's professed tenets of balance and impartiality. It also illustrates how Chinese journalists commit small acts of journalism that push the boundaries of information control. A rigorous analysis of reportage from the two channels, this book will be relevant to scholars of global media, journalism, international relations, and public diplomacy. It will also interest those in academia, the media, and international affairs who want to examine the nature of news and soft power in a comparative context. Our Good Name J. Phillip London, 2010-11-30 The Crisis That Rocked a Country and a Company In April 2004, an illegally leaked U.S. Army report thrust CACI, an information technology company, into the international spotlight by casting suspicion on a CACI employee for being either directly or indirectly responsible for the mistreatment of detainees at Abu Ghraib prison in Iraq. At the same time, pictures from the abuses were shown on national television and tarnished anyone associated with Abu Ghraib including CACI What ensued was a media frenzy rarely seen by any company in recent decades The media twisted the unsupported allegations into a guilty verdict without regard for the facts or the truth creating a damning public perception of CACI Our Good Name recounts how CACI battled to defend itself against erroneous and malicious reports by a rampaging media how it responded to the wide ranging government investigations and how it overcame misplaced anger and criticism that put the company's dedicated employees and excellent reputation even its future at risk Our Good Name is CACI's story of facing one of the biggest scandals in recent history and coming out honorably with its head high News Reporting and Writing Missouri Group, 2013-11-15 As media evolve and new formats emerge journalism students face new challenges and need new advice The Missouri Group confronts these issues in the new edition of News Reporting and Writing teaching students how to work in the new world of digital journalism by using the enduring skills and current savvy that all reporters need With new annotated models tracking a story across multiple electronic formats expanded coverage of writing for digital media and integrated video clips that go beyond the printed book News Reporting and Writing will leave students better prepared than ever Young Adult Literature: From Romance to Realism, Third Edition Michael Cart, 2017-11-21 Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth Bill Fox, 2022-03-23 Media has long been considered a primary site for political discourse in Western liberal democracies but now with the advent of social media giant multinational digital platforms such as Google and online journalism the way we do politics talk politics and cover politics has completely transformed Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth considers the ways that technology has led to an irreversible transition in power distribution political journalism and public discourse Discussing how the military industrial complex of the 1950s gave way to today's celebrity distribution complex Bill Fox examines the amount of power accorded to people well known for being well known from Donald Trump to Justin Trudeau Taking on a Canadian perspective Fox addresses the disturbing cries of fake news in the post truth age and demonstrates how journalism no longer the domain of a select few political reporters and editors has become decentralized and disaggregated In a world that now plays out on mobile devices Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth seeks a path through the debris left behind by recent seismic shifts in political media and technology Acts of Narrative Resistance Laura J. Beard, 2009-10-01 This exploration of women's autobiographical writings in the Americas focuses on three specific genres testimonio metafiction and the family saga as the story of a nation What makes Laura J Beard's work distinctive is her pairing of readings of life narratives by women from different countries and traditions Her section on metafiction focuses on works by Helena Parente Cunha of Brazil and Luisa Futoransky of Argentina the family sagas explored are by Ana Mar a Shua and N lida Pi on of Argentina and Brazil respectively and the section on testimonio highlights narratives by Lee Maracle and Shirley Sterling from different Indigenous nations in British Columbia In these texts Beard terms genres of resistance women resist the cultural definitions imposed upon them in an effort to speak and name their own experiences The author situates her work in the context of not only other feminist studies of women s autobiographies but also the continuing study of inter American literature that is demanding more comparative and cross cultural approaches Acts of Narrative Resistance addresses prominent issues in the fields of autobiography comparative literature and women s studies and in inter American Latin American and Native American studies     Books in Print Supplement ,2002
