Misadventures in Health Care Marilyn Sue Bogner, 2003-09-12 Misadventures in Health Care Inside Stories presents an alternative approach to attributing the cause of medical error solely to the health care provider. That alternative the systems approach pursues why an incident occurs in terms of factors in the context of care that affect the care provider to induce an error. The basis for this approach is the fact that an error is an act; an act is behavior and behavior is a function of the person interacting with the environment. Eleven vignettes illustrate the importance of the systems approach by describing health care incidents from the perspective of the care providers, the perspective that can identify the factors that actually affect the provider. These stories provide general readers with opportunities to apply their knowledge in analyzing incidents to identify error-inducing factors. This book is important reading for policymakers, researchers, and practitioners in law and in all medical specialties and professionals in the social sciences, human factors, and engineering. In addition to sensitizing the reader to the importance of contextual factors in error, Misadventures in Health Care is a case study reference to supplement texts in professional schools such as law and medicine as well as the full range of academic disciplines. It also is important reading for the general public because it presents an approach for addressing a very pressing social problem: that of misadventures in health care.

Critical Care Neurology Part I, 2017-01-25 Critical Care Neurology Part I Neurocritical Care focuses on the care specialists and general neurologists that consult in the ICU and their work with patients in acute life-threatening situations who are dealing with neurologic or neurosurgical crises emanating from either a preexisting neurologic syndrome or from a new neurologic complication appearing as a result of another medical or surgical critical illness. These two separate clinical situations form the pillars of neurocritical care; hence these practices are addressed via two separate but closely related HCN volumes. Chapters in both focus on pathophysiology and management and are tailored for both general neurologists and active neurocritical specialists with a specific focus on management over diagnostics. Part I addresses the principles of neurocritical care and the management of various neurologic diseases. Part II addresses the interplay between neurologic complications and the surgical, medical, cardiac, and trauma of critical illnesses that most typically present in the ICU. Provides an essential neurocritical care overview for general neurologists. Presents neurocritical care specialists with an update on severe neurological illness management. Offers coverage of all the most frequent neurologic diseases requiring intensive care. Includes chapters authored by global leaders in the field providing the broadest, most expert coverage available on the topics discussed.

International Handbook of Neuropsychological Rehabilitation Anne-Lise Christensen, Barbara P. Uzzell, 2013-04-17 I am extraordinarily pleased to have been asked by Drs Christensen and Uzzell to write the foreword for this handbook. This handbook is the result of the most recent of a series of conferences held in Copenhagen, Denmark, at five-year intervals over the past 15 years under the guidance and leadership of Dr Anne Lise Christensen and under the sponsorship of the Egmont Foundation, which must be acknowledged as well for its constant support of this international effort The participants in these conferences are all internationally renowned clinicians and scientists These experts represent not only the area of neuropsychology but disciplines ranging from fundamental neurophysiology and neuroanatomy to medical and financial perspectives on neurological injury and recovery The participants have to a significant extent remained remarkably constant over this period and this has allowed increasing intimacy among them both professionally and personally One felicitous result of this camaraderie has been that the conferences have evolved with an increased focus on topics of the broadest interest across disciplines One aspect of such a continuing dialogue across disciplines is that specific areas of mutual interest are explored in depth allowing cross fertilization of ideas to occur
