Economic Growth and Development in Ethiopia Almas Heshmati,Haeyeon Yoon,2018-04-27 This volume is a collection of selected empirical studies on determinants of economic growth and development in Ethiopia The core argument for editing this book is to provide an up to date picture of the state and patterns of growth and development in Ethiopia Ethiopia has been under focus in the past due to draughts war famine development changes and the effects of global economic crisis in the country A main contribution of this volume is that it helps identify selected important determinants of growth and development in Ethiopia and provides an estimation of their effects using up to date data modelling and methods Taken together the studies provide a comprehensive picture of the state of growth and development their measurements causal relationships and evaluation of efficient policies and practices in achieving progress in Ethiopia The issues covered represent major challenges to the government and development organizations who are aiming at achieving higher growth and alleviating poverty in the country The studies cover transition from rural agriculture to urban industry and the development of services

Theories and Practices of Development Katie Willis,2011-02-25 Global economic crisis and the implications of global environmental change have led academics and policy makers to consider how development in all parts of the world should be achieved. However, development has always been a contested idea. While often presented as a positive process to improve people's lives, the potential negative dimensions of development on people and environments must also be recognized. Theories and Practices of Development provides a clear and user-friendly introduction to the complex debates around how development has been understood and achieved. The second edition has been fully updated and expanded to reflect global political and economic shifts as well as new approaches to development. The rise of China and India is given particular attention, as is the global economic crisis and its implications for development theories and practice. There are new sections on faith-based development and the development dimensions of climate change, as well as greater engagement with development theories as they are put into practice in the Global North. The book deals with the evolution of development ideas and policies focusing on economic, political, social, environmental, and spatial dimensions. It highlights how development cannot be considered as a neutral concept but is entwined with inequalities in power at local as well as national and global scales. The use of boxed examples, tables, and illustrations helps students understand complex theoretical ideas and also demonstrates how development theories are put into practice in the real world. Each chapter ends with a summary, section discussion topics, suggestions for further reading, and website resources.

Perspectives on Music, Education, and Diversity David G. Hebert, Chee-Hoo Lum, 2025-07-26 This book is a Festschrift in celebration of Patricia Shehan Campbell's impact for more than six decades as an eminent teacher, educator, musician, and researcher in the fields of music education and ethnomusicology. Campbell's oeuvre of scholarly work is wide-ranging, spanning practical resources for music teachers to facilitate the teaching and learning of different musical cultures of the world to diverse perspectives on the musical cultures of children to the emblematic approach of World Music Pedagogy fleshed out in the Global Music Series with Oxford University Press, the Routledge World Music Pedagogy Series, and her educational work with Smithsonian Folkways Recordings alongside her extensive work with ethnomusicologists and community musicians and scholars across the world. Notable scholars from the fields of music education, ethnomusicology, and community music, including Campbell's doctoral graduates and colleagues from across recent decades, are contributors in this Festschrift to reflect upon her scholarly work and critically dialogue on several topics: perceptions of diversity in school music and children's musical cultures; applied ethnomusicology, music education, and its relation with the multicultural and social justice pedagogical approaches towards cultural diversity in music; and bridging communities and culture bearers.

Colonization and Epistemic Injustice in Higher Education Felix Maringe, 2023-03-08 Providing coherence in understanding the role that education and higher education played in the colonizing purposes of the rich nations of the North, this book draws from multiple geopolitical spaces across the world to consider how epistemic injustice has characterized colonial higher education systems. Within this text, carefully chosen international contributors explore how colonialism, coloniality, and colonization have impacted indigenous people's ways of knowing feeling behaving valuing being and becoming in fundamental ways and how the West's idea of education and schooling have been used as key instruments in the project of world domination and subjugation Beyond these key entry concepts chapters use ideas of modernity post modernism globalization internationalization and neo liberalism to examine how higher education in colonial and post colonial societies still answers to a colonial narrative and what can be done to decolonize the system Unpacking the historical and philosophical antecedents of higher education and critically examining the intentions and impact of colonial assumptions behind higher education in different parts of the world this is suitable reading for postgraduates and scholars in the field of higher education as well as senior management teams in universities and practitioners who work directly in the field of transformation in government and university departments

Africa Tony Binns, Alan Dixon, E. L. Nel, 2012 1 Africa continuity and change 2 Africa's peoples 3 African environments 4 Rural Africa 5 Urban Africa 6 Health 7 Conflict and post conflict Africa 8 African Economies 9 Developing Africa 10 What future for Africa Media Diversity in South Africa Julie Reid, 2021-12-30 This timely book argues that the Global North's research methods and traditional assumptions are not valid to the media landscapes and audiences of the Global South With South Africa as the focus the authors offer a new understanding of media diversity along an audience centred approach Disappointingly research shows that most South African citizens most of whom are economically marginalised are found to experience extremely low levels of media content diversity in their personal media diets The contributing factors are inter related and complex but include the inequitable distribution of media content a lack of African language media and most especially the cost of media access which is unaffordable to many In this book the authors examine what went wrong with post apartheid attempts to democratise the media landscape and why the experienced levels of media diversity by the majority South African audience remain so woefully low While media diversity is usually measured by policymakers sector stakeholders or by market related imperatives this book foregrounds the perspective of the media consumer In doing so traditional media measuring is inverted leading to a more in depth understanding of how ordinary people in the Global South receive media content how much and why The authors offer a holistic analysis of the ineffectuality of key media policymaking processes projects and institutions while also suggesting how these could be transformed to create a more diverse and broadly accessible media landscape Rethinking Heritage for Sustainable Development Sophia Labadi, 2022-06-06 The Sustainable Development Goals SDGs adopted by the UN in 2015 have influenced the actions of international and intergovernmental organisations and governments around the world and have dictated priorities for international aid spending Culture including heritage is often presented as fundamental to addressing the SDGs since 2010 the United Nations has adopted no fewer than five major policy recommendations that assert its importance as a driver and enabler of development Yet heritage is marginalized from the Sustainable Development Goals Rethinking Heritage for Sustainable Development constitutes a substantial and original assessment of whether and how heritage has contributed to three key dimensions of sustainable development namely poverty reduction gender equality and environmental sustainability within the context of its marginalisation from the Sustainable Development Goals and from previous international development agendas Sophia Labadi adopts a novel inclusive large scale and systematic approach providing the first comprehensive history of the international approaches on culture including heritage for development from 1970 to the present day This book is also the first to assess the negative and positive impacts of all the international projects implemented in sub Saharan Africa by a consortium of UN organisations that aimed to provide evidence for the contribution of heritage for development in time for the negotiation of the SDGs The book s conclusions provide recommendations for rethinking heritage for development while reflecting on the major shortcomings of the selected projects The Racial Dynamics of Reporting Africa Omega

Douglas,2025-05-21 This book critically considers how and why centring race in the analysis of journalism deepens our understanding of how race is constructed and experienced in society In doing so it offers a theoretical framework for unpacking and dismantling racism within journalism practice and representation Linking race critical post and decolonial theories to the structural constructivist framework of journalistic field theory this book examines the role of Black journalists and INGOs in reporting on sub Saharan Africa in dominant British news organisations This study goes beyond journalistic representation to consider the racial dynamics informing the production of Western news and the complex relations between journalists of colour and the institutional culture of dominant Western news organisations Through a case study and in depth original interviews the author addresses the racialisation of mainstream UK news production and news representations of Africa and shows how and why mediated racialised discourses occur and recur as well as what to do about them Advancing studies of race representation Black identities and journalism studies The Racial Dynamics of Reporting Africa contributes to decolonising journalism media and communication studies It is recommended reading for students academics and practitioners in these areas Addressing Issues of Learner Diversity in English Language Education Tran, Thao

Quoc,Duong, Tham My,2024-04-22 In the dynamic context of English language education learners bring many differences in identity motivation engagement ability and more Addressing Issues of Learner Diversity in English Language Education recognizes that traditional one size fits all approaches to language education are insufficient in meeting the needs of a varied and global learner population It grapples with effectively teaching English to individuals with diverse linguistic backgrounds learning styles and cultural contexts The challenges range from learner autonomy and motivation issues to navigating mixed level classes and integrating technology into language teaching Drawing on current research trends and cutting edge methodologies this book captures the diverse voices of contributors from various ESL EFL settings offering context specific solutions to the myriad challenges faced in language education The book illuminates the nuanced phenomena within English language education it showcases innovative theoretical frameworks and up to date research findings By addressing learners as singular individuals and collectives the publication guides educators in enhancing individual competencies and maximizing

the potential of each learner Feminism, Diversity and HRD Beverly Dawn Metcalfe, Yasmeen Makarem, 2024-06-18

Feminism Diversity and HRD aims to enhance critical understandings of feminism diversity and HRD theorization and practice in the global political economy This involves addressing race class and intersectional approaches to evaluating inequalities in society organizations The book will bring together cutting edge analysis to offer a critical interdisciplinary overview of the feminism diversity and HRD debates that are only just emerging Crucially it will offer new insights on the governance and policy making dimensions of national HRD and the gender agendas advocated by global institutions which are influenced by social justice themes In this respect the contributions in this volume offer more than just a tried and tested analysis of the political knowledge and skill gap problems that face organizations and nation states Rather they are agenda setting and forward looking since they critically consider what the HRD solutions currently on offer are and how they can be further improved Thus the contributions will cover theoretical and policy perspectives not previously covered in a critical text of this kind

The Transnationalized Social Question Thomas Faist, 2018-11-30 The social question is back Yet today s social question is not primarily between labour and capital as it was in the nineteenth century and throughout much of the twentieth The contemporary social question is located at the interstices between the global South and the global North It finds its expression in movements of people seeking a better life or fleeing unsustainable social political economic and ecological conditions It is transnationalized not only because migrants and their significant others entertain ties across the borders of national states staying in touch with family and friends receiving or sending financial remittances in transnational social spaces Also of importance are cross border recruitment schemes for workers and the cross border diffusion of norms appealed to in the case of migration for example the social right to decent work as a human right Moreover migration can become an issue of inclusion or exclusion in fields important to life chances in the emigration transit or immigration states a transnationalization of national states And as in the nineteenth century political conflicts arise constituting the social question as a public concern In earlier periods class differences dominated conflicts While class has always been criss crossed by manifold heterogeneities not least of all cultural ones around ethnicity religion and language it is these latter heterogeneities that have sharpened in situations of immigration and emigration over the past decades Casting a wide net in terms of conceptual and empirical scope this book tackles both the social structure and the politics of social inequalities It sets a comprehensive agenda for research which also includes the public role of social scientists in dealing with the transnationalized social question

Information Systems and Global Diversity Chrisanthi Avgerou, 2002 Drawing on experience and research in different societies this text explains the nature of organizational diversity in which ICT innovation takes place and also develops a conceptual approach to account for it

Transnational Migration and the New Subjects of Work Banu Özkazanç-Pan, 2019-09-26 In an increasingly globalized world mobility is a new defining feature of our lives livelihoods and work experiences This book is a first in utilising transnational migration studies as a new theoretical framework in management and organization studies Ozkazanc Pan presents a much needed new concept for understanding people work and organizations in a world on the move while attending to growing inequality associated with work in changing societies The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Management Chris Cooper, Serena Volo, William C.
