African Acrostics Avis Harley, 2009 Celebrates such wild animals as giraffes zebras and lions in poems written to contain acrostics in which beginning or ending letters from the poetry lines can be used to spell other words Poetry Mentor Texts Lynne Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10 Building on the success of Mentor Texts and Nonfiction Mentor Texts authors Lynne R Dorfman and Rose Cappelli now turn their attention to poetry In Poetry Mentor Texts Lynne and Rose show teachers how to use poems in both reading and writing workshops and across content areas Written in a friendly conversational tone this practical book explores a variety of poetic forms including poems that inspire response list poems acrostic poems persona poems and poems for two voices versatile forms of poetry that can be used in every grade Each of these poetic forms has its own chapter featuring five poems with applications for both reading and writing classrooms Reading connections present skills and strategies to move students forward as readers helping them to build fluency vocabulary comprehension phonemic awareness and phonics Writing connections help students and teachers discover their own voices and grow as poets and wordsmiths as they try out many poetic forms Poems help students at all grade levels learn to better address complex reading texts offering them a chance to dig deeper and use higher order thinking skills Additionally Your Turn writing lessons provide a scaffold for seamlessly moving from modeling to the shared or guided experience and the transfer to independent work The Treasure Chest offers a brief annotation of the poems discussed in each chapter as well as companion pieces that extend and enhance the work of the reading and writing classroom Poetry Mentor Texts helps teachers across the curriculum guide their students to become not only skilled readers and writers but also more empathetic human beings Using Mentor Texts to Teach 6 + 1 Writing Traits Beverly A. DeVries, 2022-12-30 In this book you ll find a wealth of mini lessons designed to improve the quality of students writing Each lesson uses a key mentor text and spotlights one of the 6 1 Writing Traits to allow students to focus on the essential aspects of good writing content organization word choice voice sentence fluency conventions and presentation Inviting and practical the lessons are concise and follow a consistent model for easy implementation With seven lessons per chapter each includes step by step guidance open ended prompts and suggestions for additional suitable mentor texts The chapters are organized by genre including fiction informational texts and poetry and feature graphic novels and graphic informational mentor texts to inspire and engage students Aligned with the Common Core State Standards this resource is essential for any K 8 or pre service teacher who wants to instill in their students the skills to become independent confident writers National Geographic Book of Animal Poetry J. Patrick Lewis, 2012 A collection of 200 poems about animals Books That Teach Kids to Write Marianne Saccardi, 2011-05-05 This book provides a wealth of read aloud titles and related activities that provide busy teachers with the tools to help students in grades K 12 become successful writers Teachers can always benefit from new techniques that allow them to teach writing in a more engaging and enjoyable manner and a resource that identifies a plethora of excellent children's books that help students become successful writers would also be helpful. Books That Teach Kids to Write introduces busy educators to the finest in children's literature in all genres appropriate for readers in grades K through 12 and provides effective ideas for using those books to stimulate and improve student writing. This book discusses language use and other critical components of good writing, showcasing the children's books and specific activities that can help both primary and secondary school students. Included reproducibles for the writing exercises make lesson planning simple while the sheer number of titles discussed and the extensive bibliographies provided minimize the time teachers must spend researching books to use with their students. An appendix includes more writing instruction resources such as children's books, websites, and professional texts.

Language Arts Pamela J. Farris, Donna E. Werderich, 2019-01-08 From the first edition to the latest, Language Arts: Process, Product, and Assessment for Diverse Classrooms has presented sound language arts theory and methodology in a nonthreatening, straightforward manner at a reasonable price. Coverage focuses on the 2017 Standards for Literacy Professionals. Each chapter identifies and addresses the standards applicable to that chapter's topics. Farris and Werderich infuse their foundational guidelines with the latest research, teaching practices, and assessment and evaluation techniques. Ideas for lesson plans, use of technological applications, internet resources, and comprehensive up-to-date listings of children's, young adult, and multicultural fiction and nonfiction titles are among the text's outstanding features. Other features geared expressly for pre- and inservice teachers include engaging real-life classroom anecdotes, instructional activities for reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing, and visually representing, boxes containing teaching hints and mini lessons, a section on Response to Intervention (RTI) with the various tiers of intervention, theories of instruction, and teaching activities for English language learners (ELLs), guidelines to meet the needs of special needs learners, suggestions for literacy-based interdisciplinary instruction including STEM and STEAM, examples of children's work to help readers understand what to expect from different ages and ability levels, questions and assignments to strengthen readers' aptitude, awareness, and application of topics to real life.

African Language Media Phillip Mpofu, Israel A. Fadipe, Thulani Tshabangu, 2023-03-13 This book outlines how African language media is affected by politics, technology, culture, and the economy, and how this media is creatively produced and appropriated by audiences across cultures and contexts. African language media can be considered as a tool for communication, socialization, and community that defines the various identities of indigenous people in Africa. This book shows how vernacular media outlets, including radio and television, as well as native formats such as festivals, rituals, and dance, can be used to influence all facets of local people's experience and understanding of community. The book also explores the relationship between African language media sources and contemporary issues, including the digitalization conundrum, peace and conflict resolution, identity formation, hate speech, and fake news. Furthermore, it shows how local media can be used for development communication purposes during health and environmental crises. The book includes case studies demonstrating the uses, experiences, and activities related to various forms of media available in African languages This book will be of interest to scholars in the field of communication and media studies health and environmental communication journalism African studies and anthropology Using Poetry Across the Curriculum Barbara Chatton,2010-01-13 This comprehensive listing and discussion of poetic works supports the standards of all areas of the curriculum helping librarians and teachers working with kindergarten through middle school students This second edition of Using Poetry Across the Curriculum Learning to Love Language offers a comprehensive list of poetry anthologies poetic picture books and poetic prose works in a wide variety of subject areas While it maintains the original edition's focus on ideas and resource lists for integration of poetry into all areas of the curriculum it is thoroughly revised to cover current issues in education and the wealth of new poetry books available The book is organized by subject areas commonly taught in elementary and middle schools and within these by the national standards in each area Numerous examples of poetry and poetic prose that can be used to help students understand and appreciate aspects of the standard are listed A sampling of units that arise from groups of works writing and performance ideas and links across the curriculum is also included While many teaching ideas and topics provide references to the standards they meet this title is unique in starting with those standards and making links across them Writing Winning Reports Sandy Woolley,2005 Written reports have been a favorite format for sharing knowledge in schools since the invention of paper and pen Writing Winning Reports stresses not only producing a polished report but also gaining important research and organizational skills in the process It presents guidelines for 15 broad research topics Each unit provides an outline of how to organize the report a point breakdown for grading a list of alternative projects Guidelines are open enough to allow for individual creativity but organized to assure successful presentation This is easy to use format is the beginning of winning reports Book jacket
