

Die Bere Wat Beskerm

*"Klein Gelykheid"
Juffrou Selma*

"Vandag lees ons Gouelokkies en die drie bere," begin juffrou Selma, die nuwe juffrou by Klouter-en-Klim-speelskool.

Triesa spring dadelik regop. "Ek ken die storie, ek wil dit nie hoor nie."

Die ander kinders in die speelgroepie begin ook rusteloos raak. Juffrou Selma sug moedeloos. "Wat wil julle dan hoor?"

Maar dan dink sy so bietjie en vra: "Wat is fout met die storie, Triesa?"

"Niks." Triesa gaan sit, maar haar mond trek ontevrede.

Chris van Wyk - Irascible Genius Kevin van Wyk, 2024-07-01 When he died in 2014 author Chris van Wyk left behind an impressive literary legacy The scope of his work was broad poetry children s books short stories and biographies But perhaps he is best remembered for his memoir Shirley Goodness Mercy which chronicles his growing up in Riverlea and introduces us to the colourful characters who helped to shape his life and inform the stories he wrote The public persona of this witty and wise raconteur was well known but behind it was a family man who liked nothing better than to spend time with his two sons Kevin and Karl his wife and childhood sweetheart Kathy and the friends and family who were his primary sources of inspiration Using the unique vantage point of oldest son Kevin van Wyk s astute observations of his father and the strong bond they enjoyed throughout Chris s life have resulted in a memoir that is as affectionate as it is entertaining In taking us behind the scenes into the Van Wyk household we witness the inner workings of the mind of a storyteller from the flowering of his father s activism wit and wisdom to the sources of his occasional quirky outbursts If storytelling runs in the genes Kevin may just be proof that his father s spirit lives on

Maternity and Child Welfare, 1924 National Character in South African English Children's Literature Elwyn Jenkins, 2006-11-01 This is the first full length study of South African English youth literature to cover the entire period of its publication from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century Jenkins book focuses on what made the subsequent literature essentially South African and what aspects of the country and its society authors concentrated on What gives this book particular strength is its coverage of literature up to the 1960s which has until now received almost no scholarly attention Not only is this earlier literature a rewarding subject for study in itself but it also throws light on subsequent literary developments Another exceptional feature is that the book follows the author's previous work in placing children's literature in the context of adult South African literature and South African cultural history e.g. cinema He also makes enlightening comparisons with American Canadian and Australian children's literature Creating Books for the Young in the New South Africa Barbara A. Lehman, Jay Heale, Anne Hill, 2014-10-08 This collection of essays analyzes the work of 29 authors and illustrators South African children's and youth literature has a long history The country is the most prolific publisher of children's books on the continent producing perhaps the highest quality literature in Africa Its traditions resonate within the larger world of children's literature but are solidly grounded in African myth and archetypes The African diaspora in the U.S. and elsewhere have stories rooted in these oral traditions Much has changed in South African literature for children since the 1994 transformation of the country A field once dominated by all white and mostly female writers and illustrators has diversified adding many new voices S.A. Pictorial, 1928

Translation Revision and Post-editing Maarit Koponen, Brian Mossop, Isabelle S. Robert, Giovanna Scocchera, 2020-10-26 Translation Revision and Post editing looks at the apparently dissolving boundary between correcting translations generated by human brains and those generated by machines It presents new research on post editing and revision in government and corporate translation departments translation agencies the literary publishing sector and the volunteer sector as well as on training in both types of translation checking work This collection includes empirical studies based on surveys interviews and keystroke logging as well as more theoretical contributions questioning such traditional distinctions as translating versus editing The chapters discuss revision and post editing involving eight languages Afrikaans Catalan Dutch English Finnish French German and Spanish Among the topics covered are translator reviser relations and revising post editing by non professionals The book is key reading for researchers instructors and advanced students in Translation Studies as well as for professional translators with a special interest in checking translations

Neither Here nor There Timothy Carson, 2019-02-28 Neither Here nor There The Many Voices of Liminality draws together the expertise experience and insights of a coterie of authors all of whom relate the core concepts of liminality to their unique contexts The experience of and inquiry into liminal phenomena have developed into a distinct discipline of study which now crosses and informs many areas of thought including anthropology sociology theology psychology literature and education New vistas of interdisciplinary study have opened as a result of sharing the common language and symbol system of liminality This anthology reflects the current resurgence of liminality and provides a critical source book ideal for individual reflection study groups classes and seminars From the inner workings of spiritual life to large social transformations liminality now provides a powerful interpretive tool and effective method for spiritual direction teaching and leadership

Son of a Whore Herman Lategan, 2023-10-03 After the runaway success of his

Afrikaans memoir Hoerkind the contrarian journalist and writer Herman Lategan translated and updated his eventful life story with no holds barred Herman was conceived illegitimately one warm February night in 1964 in a boarding house in Cape Town From an early age he felt disposable passed from one pair of unstable adult hands to the next even ending up in an orphanage for a while At thirteen he was caught in the web of a cunning paedophile a well known Afrikaans newspaperman Shortly after his eighteenth birthday when his abuser finished with him Herman was unceremoniously dumped at the door of his alcoholic father Conscripted into the army and a dishonourable discharge followed During his teenage years Herman befriended Afrikaans poets like Sheila Cussons Ina Rousseau Barend J Toerien and Casper Schmidt and later in New York he followed Andy Warhol in the street and partied with a smorgasbord of social butterflies Back in South Africa Herman established himself as a journalist but struggled with alcohol and drug addiction and was homeless for a while For many an employer he became the nightmare they feared most Son of a Whore is a gripping account of loss hardship and overcoming both it will make you laugh and at times break your heart You will despair at the cruelty of a world in which the marginalised are forsaken but stand in awe at the extent of goodness surrounding us because ultimately people depend on each other

Knowledge in the Blood Jonathan D. Jansen, 2009 Discusses how white South African students learn and confront their Apartheid past and explores how this knowledge transforms both the students and the author the first black dean of an historically white university

Shadow Sisters Shelley Davidow, 2018-03-28 A brave heartrending memoir of family love and longing in the turbulent era of Apartheid in South Africa During the terrifying years of Apartheid in South Africa Shelley Davidow's family was a crime At a time when it was illegal for black and white people to live together Shelley's social activist parents took in Rosie an abandoned black three year old Rosie grew up as a beloved daughter and sister in a white household Against the backdrop of racist laws and ever present threats of violence Shelley's parents did all they could to provide a safe happy home for their five children But when Rosie was sixteen devastating truths came to light shattering the family's understanding of the past In this haunting memoir Shelley Davidow sifts through the memories of her early life searching for hope and reconciliation Shadow Sisters leaves us with a deeper understanding of family love and of how sometimes that love is not enough

The Long Journey of Poppie Nongena Elsa Joubert, 2019-10-20 Poppie Nongena's arduous journey covers 40 years of South Africa's history sweeping through the riots of Sharpeville Soweto and Cape Town on to an indefinite but unpromising future The plot reflects the brutality and injustice of the Apartheid system while Elsa Joubert's characterisations reflect the courage and fortitude of people in the face of hardship and difficulty Poppie's contented childhood in the Cape's countryside came to an end when she married a migrant worker and was forced by the authorities to move with him and their young family to the unfamiliar and bewildering city of Cape Town No sooner had she established her roots in the new township when the laws changed and she was informed of her obligation to relocate to the Ciskei her husband's homeland He as a migrant worker was permitted to remain in the Cape to work Over a ten year period

Poppie fought the heinous pass law system winning limited extensions to the permit that would allow her to live and work in Cape Town and enable her to keep the family together and provide an education for her children Her own anger was shared by thousands and inevitably the brooding undercurrent of discontent exploded throughout South Africa Suddenly there were no further extensions Poppie and her children were forcibly removed from their home and resettled in a new township hundreds of miles away near East London The Long Journey of Poppie Nongena is an epic tale of the endless adversity and struggle of a humble black woman under Apartheid laws Poppie emerges from being a simple country girl to becoming an archetypal heroine of South Africa
