Memorization and the Compound-Phrase Distinction Marcel Schlechtweg, 2018-01-09 Over the last decades it has been hotly debated whether and how compounds i e word formations and phrases differ from each other The book discusses this issue by investigating compounds and phrases from a structural semantic functional and crucially cognitive perspective The analysis focuses on compounds and phrases that are composed of either an adjective and a noun or two nouns in German French and English Having distinguished compounds from phrases on structural and semantic functional grounds the author claims that compounds are by their nature more appropriate to be stored in the mental lexicon than phrases and supports his argument with empirical evidence from new psycholinguistic studies In sum the book maintains the separation between compounds and phrases and reflects upon its cognitive consequences

Reconciliation, Forgiveness and Violence in Africa Marius J. Nel, Dion A. Forster, Christo H. A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston, 2014-09-25 David Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community. It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ. For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission: A Missiology of the Road, shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church. Fuzzy boundaries: Ambiguity in speech production and comprehension Christopher Carignan, Georgia Zellou, Eleanor Chodroff, Joseph V. Casillas, 2023-04-20 Mutual Intelligibility between Closely Related Languages Charlotte Gooskens, 2024-10-21 This book provides a detailed overview of research on mutual intelligibility between closely related languages. The book is organized around three sections which explore different facets of mutual intelligibility research. The first section outlines how to measure levels of intelligibility and its linguistic and extra-linguistic determinants. The second part grapples with questions and issues which arise once the measuring tools are established. A final section reflects on the practical and theoretical value of studying mutual intelligibility including issues related to language planning and policy such as cultural, communicative, educational and economical matters. Burning Table Mountain S. Pooley, 2014-09-19 Cape Town's iconic Table Mountain and the surrounding peninsula has been a crucible for attempts to integrate the social and ecological dimensions of wild fire. This environmental history of humans and wildfire outlines these interactions from the practices of Khoikhoi herders to the conflagrations of January 2000. The region's unique famously diverse fynbos vegetation has been transformed since European colonial settlement through urbanisation and biological modifications both intentional forestry and unintentional biological invasions. In all the diverse visions people have formed for Table Mountain, aesthetic and utilitarian fire has been regarded as a central problem. This book shows how scientific understandings of fire in fynbos developed slowly in the face of strong prejudices. Human impacts were intensified in the twentieth century which provides the temporal focus for the book. The disjunctures between popular perception, expert knowledge, policy and management are explored and the book supplements existing short-term scientific data with proxies on fire incidence trends recovered from historical records.
