Afrikaans Study Scheme Of Work Cambridge:

Linguistic and Philological Studies of the Hebrew Bible and its Manuscripts ,2023-07-10 This volume honors the extraordinary scholarship of Prof Gary A Rendsburg whose work and friendship have influenced so many in the last five decades Twenty five prominent scholars from the US Europe Israel and Australia have contributed significant original studies in three of Rendsburg s areas of interest and expertise Hebrew language Hebrew Bible and Hebrew manuscripts These linguistic philological literary epigraphic and historical approaches to the study of Hebrew and its textual traditions serve as a worthy tribute to such an accomplished scholar and also as an illustration how all of these approaches can complement one another in the fields of Hebrew and Biblical Studies Further Education ,1949 The Gate ,1949 Annual Report Namibia. Ministry of Basic Education, Sport, and Culture,2001 The Handbook of Historical Sociolinguistics Juan Manuel Hernández-Campoy,Juan Camilo Conde-Silvestre,2012-02-15 Written by an international team of leading scholars this groundbreaking reference work explores the nature of language change and diffusion and paves the way for future research in this rapidly expanding interdisciplinary field Features 35 newly written essays from internationally acclaimed experts that reflect the growth and vitality of the burgeoning area of historical sociolinguistics Examines how sociolinguistic theoretical models methods findings and expertise can be used to reconstruct a language s past in order to explain linguistic changes and developments Bridges the gap between the past and the present in linguistic studies Structured thematically into sections exploring origins and theoretical assumptions methods for the sociolinguistic study of the history of languages linguistic and extra linguistic variables historical dialectology language contact and diffusion and attitudes to language

The Journal of Education ,1923 Language and Masculinities Tommaso M. Milani,2014-12-05 This volume showcases cutting edge research in the linguistic and discursive study of masculinities comprising the first significant edited collection on language and masculinities since Johnson and Meinhof s 1997 volume Overall the chapters are linked together by a critical analytical perspective that seeks to understand the relationships between discourse masculinities and power Whereas some of the chapters offer detailed linguistically informed critiques of the ways in which old and new expressions of masculinities are complicit in the reproduction of men s hegemonic positions of power others provide a more complex picture one in which collusion and subversion go hand in hand Contributions argue for the need for research on language and masculinities to expand its remit so as to engage with gay masculinities and unsettle gendered categories in order to consider the ways in which women transgender and intersex individuals also perform a variety of masculinities Finally unlike Johnson and Meinhof s 1997 collection this volume not only offers a wider and perhaps queerer perspective on the study of language and masculinities but also covers a broader geographical and socio cultural spectrum including work on Brazil Israel New Zealand Singapore and South Africa Architecture, State Modernism and Cultural Nationalism in the Apartheid Capital Hilton Judin,2021-04-08 This book is the first comprehensive investigation of the architecture of the apartheid state in the period of rapid economic growth and political repression from 1957 to 1966 when buildings took on an ideological role that was never remote from the increasingly dominant administrative legislative and policing mechanisms of the regime It considers how this process reflected the usurpation of a regional modernism and looks to contribute to wider discourses on international postwar modernism in architecture Buildings in Pretoria that came to embody ambitions of the apartheid state for industrialisation and progress serve as case studies These were widely acclaimed projects that embodied for apartheid officials the pursuit of modernisation but carried latent apprehensions of Afrikaners about their growing economic prospects and cultural estrangement in Africa It is a less known and marginal story due to the dearth of material and documents buried in archives and untranslated documents Many of the documents drawings and photographs in the book are unpublished and include classified material and photographs from the National Nuclear Research Centre negatives of 1960s from Pretoria News and documents and pamphlets from Afrikaner Broederbond archives State architecture became the most iconic public manifestation of an evolving expression of white cultural identity as a new generation of architects in Pretoria took up the challenge of finding form to their prospects and beliefs It was an opportunistic faith in Afrikaners who urgently needed to entrench their vulnerable and contested position on the African continent The shift from provincial town to apartheid capital was swift and relentless Little was left to stand in the way of the ambitions and aim of the state as people were uprooted and forcibly relocated structures torn down and block upon block of administration towers and slabs erected across Pretoria This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of architectural history as well as those with an interest in postcolonial studies political science and social anthropology Suid-Afrikaanse Argeologiese Bulletin ,1967
