Slaves in Paradise Jesús García, 2017-03-30 This powerful book is about one of the most controversial realities in our modern world the existence of slave labor in the 21st century with millions of people today living in horrendous conditions of abuse and subjugation It is the heroic story of missionary priest Fr Christopher Hartley who inspired by the Gospel committed his life to fight for such workers in the sugar cane industry of the Dominican Republic so they could live and die with the human dignity that was denied them When he arrived in 1997 Fr Hartley carried out intense work of evangelization and calling on the social doctrine of the Church denounced the situation of slavery of his faithful he proclaimed it in a speech before the President of the Republic and he confronted the proprietors of the sugar mills Because of his strong criticism of such exploitation he endured harsh treatment by the press and others and was threatened with death During his years of mission until he was expelled from the country in 2006 he wrote detailed letters to his friend about the horrible conditions he was fighting against for his people In the letters together with rich spiritual reflections and filled with apostolic passion Fr Hartley tells chilling stories of his people s suffering as well as striking expressions of love for God and faith in Providence by those who have nothing These moving insightful letters are the heart of this book bolstered by the inspiring testimonies of those who lived and worked by his side in this great missionary epic It reveals how terrible evil and suffering can be overcome by strong faith and deep love This is a book that exudes hope which generates the happiness and joy of living and sparks a lively desire to do the same to evangelize The testimony of this beloved missionary priest transmits joy and light as he transmitted that same joy and hope to those long suffering brothers and sisters in the Dominican Republic

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault,2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault gave a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that have remained relatively unknown until only recently Entitled Wrong Doing Truth Telling these lectures provides the missing link between Foucault s early work on sexuality and punishment and his later work on Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the 20th century Foucault traces how the early ethical acts of truth telling in ancient Greece gradually metamorphosed into acts of self incrimination in monastic times and ultimately into the birth and rise of psychiatry as the foundation of modern penology criminology and criminal justice For Foucault self incrimination no longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing we wanted to know who the criminal was not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime An avowal of wrong doing was no longer sufficient psychiatric expertise was now necessary and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice made so famous by Foucault The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular ,1923 The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular ,1923 Catalog of the Theatre and Drama Collections New York Public Library.
