Adventist Quarterly Lesson 2014:

The Development Trap Adam D. Kiš, 2018-03-05 A wave of optimism is sweeping through the international aid and development industry championed by leaders such as Jeffrey Sachs and Jim Yong Kim who believe that poverty eradication could be within our grasp Yet in stark opposition come those who believe that all international development intervention is hegemonic paternalistic and neocolonialist and must be done away with In this book the author argues for a middle ground Poverty is an entrenched intractable problem that will never be entirely eradicated However if we reorientate our objectives in line with realistic goals that improve the way that poverty is confronted on a smaller scale we can still continue the fight for meaningful change Using rigorous scholarship illustrated with vivid storytelling and personal anecdotes from fighting against poverty in the field The Development Trap argues that we need to make progress against poverty on the micro rather than the macro scale Instead of shooting for a single overarching end of poverty our goals must be modest and reachable

West,2014-04-01 Sometimes life breaks us Sometimes we find ourselves lost in all the hurt and confusion we have to live with every day Sometimes it feels as though we cannot possibly endure another moment And sometimes we find ourselves so low that we literally weep through the night King David was familiar with and spoke often of this pain However he also knew of a greater hope a hope that has the ability to lift our spirits as we wait for the coming joy in the morning Joy in the Night shares ten of Don Rodney West s most popular sermons which he has presented around the world From Jamaica to Mexico to New York Pastor West provides the background information as to the location of his sermon and the reason for choosing each topic before diving into the sermon Written with humor and compassion yet not lacking in seriousness and truth Pastor West delves into ten different concepts all of which reflect not only the joy we may experience in the morning but also the joy we can find in the night in the midst of our trials Junior/Teen Bible Lessons My Bible First, Adventist history end times
