determination and bravery by both sides which far exceeded anything experienced by the veterans of Wellington's recent campaigns in Spain and Portugal. Indeed it was that unconquerable spirit which left over 50 000 men dead on the field of battle and tens of thousands of others wounded. This thoroughly researched and highly detailed account of one of history's greatest human dramas looks first at the wider strategic picture before focusing on the tactical roles played by individual British units, all meticulously examined with the benefit of an extensive array of hitherto unexploited primary sources which reveal the battlefield experience of officers and soldiers as never before. Refusing simply to repeat the same unchallenged accounts and to commit the same errors of previous historians, this work relies exclusively on hundreds of first-hand accounts by men of all ranks and from practically every British regiment and corps present on that fateful day to provide a fresh and revised perspective on one of the most pivotal events of modern times.

Bridging the Gap, Breaching Barriers Mary Carol Cloutier, 2021-03-04

From its very beginning in June 1842 the Protestant Mission in Gabon included men and women of African descent: African Americans, Americo Liberians and West Africans, all teachers and advanced students from the Cape Palmas Liberia Mission who transferred with the mission to its new location on the Gaboon estuary. All came voluntarily and wholeheartedly. They served as teachers, evangelists, preachers and printers, building the early foundation of Christianity in Gabon. Many eventually returned to their homelands but others stayed for the duration of their lives, assimilating into the local community. This book celebrates the contribution of persons of African descent who served with the mission from 1834 until 1891, a time of complex and controversial race relations in America which seeped into mission relations overseas. Private missionary correspondence and journals reveal the interrelationships, roles and contributions of these individuals and also the underlying perceptions of nationality, race and gender. One must grieve the injustices evident in the stories yet marvel at the giftedness, faith, determination and commitment of those who served, often with no official recognition. I introduce you to Mr B V R James, Lavinia Sneed, Charity Sneed, Menkel Mary Harding and others; may their stories inspire you.
