African Myths Of Origin:

African Myths of Origin Stephen Belcher, 2005-12-01 Gathering a wide range of traditional African myths this compelling new collection offers tales of heroes battling mighty serpents and monstrous birds brutal family conflict and vengeance and desperate migrations across vast and alien lands From impassioned descriptions of animal creators to dramatic stories of communities forced to flee monstrous crocodiles all the narratives found here concern origins whether of the universe peoples or families Together they create a kaleidoscopic picture of the rich and varied oral traditions that have shaped the culture and society of successive generations of Africans for thousands of years throughout the long struggle to survive and explore this massive and environmentally diverse continent African Myths and Beliefs Tony Allan, Fergus Fleming, Charles Phillips, 2011-12-15 Examines the myths and beliefs of Sub Saharan Africa Myths of the Creation of Man and the Origin of Death in Africa Obiakoizu A. Iloanusi, 1984 The study of the myths of preliterate society is at times a painstaking venture because of the often rather unfortunate misinterpretation of these myths as false stories based on imagination But myth as a lived religious experience of a particular cultural society asserts the necessity for expression of transcendent realities which in turn are expressed in symbolic forms It governs the faith and controls the conduct of the people who live the myths in their ritual ceremonies As a narrative resurrection of primordial reality with normative influence myth satisfies deep religious needs fixes customs sanctions and modes of behaviour This work undertakes to show that religious myths of the preliterate society especially the myths of creation of man and the origin of death are not illusive stories concocted to deceive common mind but rather mental deductions of the preliterate mind of the history of his religion the knowledge of his origin death and the hereafter Introduction to African Religion John S. Mbiti, 1991 These traditional reads are brimming with spirited characters and positive values but with a little extra excitement and bite so hold on to your hats Written expressly for the middle grade struggling reader the series does not contain strong language edgy themes or dysfunctional families In fact family is the main theme of these titles And one particular Latino family is the focus with their uncanny knack for finding humor hope and colorful personalities even in unusual circumstances Written at the lowest reading levels the 50 page story structure is straightforward and moves the reader through the text quickly and efficiently They were trapped Then Ana remembered the old stone church It was nearby She knew the old building was the safest place for her family It could withstand the high winds and rising water African Mythology Sandra Giddens, Owen Giddens, 2006-01-15 Describes the role of mythology in African culture and religion and presents several myths African Traditional Religion in the Modern World, 2d ed. Douglas E. Thomas, 2015-05-21 African traditional religion encompasses a variety of non dogmatic spiritual practices followed by millions around the world Some scholars argue it is related to the Nubian religion of Egypt s Dynastic Period In an expanded second edition this book examines the nature of African traditional religion and describes common attributes of various cultural belief systems with an emphasis on West Africa

Principal elements studied include sacrifice salvation and culture modes of revelation divination and African resilience in the face of invasion and colonization The religious experiences of black people throughout the Americas are also covered The author finds the cosmology symbolism and rituals of the Yoruba culture to be the fundamental bases of African traditional religion and draws similarities between the oral and written literature of West Africans and that of New World practitioners The influence of Islam and Christianity is also discussed

Pepenene, 2024-02-23 This volume explores contemporary African women s creative writing highlighting their contributions to ecofeminist theology Contributors address the following questions How do contemporary African women writers depict the Earth land environment and its relationship to women in various contexts How is religion featured in African women s writing How does religious literature scriptures form an intertextual layer in African women s writing The contributors proceed by analyzing the intersection of religion gender class sexuality colonialism and ecology in selected texts written by African women They bring these texts into conversation with broader eco feminist theological scholarship exploring the potential of literary writing to contribute to theological discourse of liberation and social justice in the African and global arena      Towards an African Narrative Theology Joseph Healey,1996 Reflects what traditional proverbs used in Christian catechetical liturgical and ritual contexts reveal about Tanzanian appropriations of and interpretations of Christianity      Deadly Powers Paul A. Trout,2011-11-15 In this illuminating and evocative exploration of the origin and function of storytelling the author goes beyond the work of mythologist Joseph Campbell arguing that mythmaking evolved as a cultural survival strategy for coping with the constant fear of being killed and eaten by predators Beginning nearly two million years ago in the Pleistocene era the first stories Trout argues functioned as alarm calls warning fellow group members about the carnivores lurking in the surroundings At the earliest period before the development of language these rudimentary stories would have been acted out When language appeared with the evolution of the ancestral human brain stories were recited memorized and much later written down as the often bone chilling myths that have survived to this day This book takes the reader through the landscape of world mythology to show how our more recent ancestors created myths that portrayed animal predators in four basic ways as monsters as gods as benefactors and as role models Each incarnation is a variation of the fear management technique that enabled early humans not only to survive but to overcome their potentially incapacitating fear of predators In the final chapter Trout explores the ways in which our visceral fear of predators is played out in the movies where both animal and human predators serve to probe and revitalize our capacity to detect and survive danger Anyone with an interest in mythology archaeology folk tales and the origins of contemporary storytelling will find this book an exciting and provocative exploration into the natural and psychological forces that shaped human culture and gave rise to storytelling and mythmaking      A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo,2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women s political participation The author s primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng s concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women s oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual s life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a sophiological hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino s liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology
