African Gender Scholarship Concepts Methodologies And Paradigms Codesria Gender:

African Gender Scholarship Signe Arnfred, 2004 A distinctive contribution of African feminist and gender scholarship has been a conscious effort to draw from and simultaneously rethink concepts paradigms and methodologies that are often taken for granted both in conventional and in mainstream feminist scholarship This with a view to enriching them with perspectives sensitive to the encounters cultures economic and socio political predicaments that have shaped and been shaped by gender relations in Africa This volume brings together essays by some of the leading names on gender studies in Africa as a major contribution to these concerns Situating themselves variously in relation to claims and counter claims on the universalisms and particularisms in African feminism and gender studies the authors debate the relative merits of Eurocentrism African epistemologies and cultures colonial legacies postcolonial realities and other current dilemmas and challenges in understanding and articulating African feminism and gender research Practiced and budding scholars should find this a fascinating read Book cover

Gender, Sport and Development in Africa Jimoh Shehu, 2010-07-12 To many young people the term sport has an exhilarating ring to many older persons it signifies recreation and leisure From colonial times it has been viewed as a means of social control Increasingly it is being touted by governments and donor agencies as a self evident tool of Africa's development How accurate are these individual romantic and moral notions of sport In this volume eleven African scholars offer insightful analyses of the complex ideological and structural dimensions of modern sport as a cultural institution Drawing on various theories and cross cultural data the contributors to this volume highlight the various ways in which sport norms policies practices and representations pervasively interface with gender and other socially constructed categories of difference They argue that sport is not only a site of competition and physical recreation but also a crossroad where features of modern society such as hegemony identities democracy technology development and master statuses intertwine and bifurcate As they point out in many ways sport production reproduction distribution and consumption are relational spatial and contextual and therefore do not pay off for men women and other social groups equally The authors draw attention to the structure and scope of efforts needed to transform the exclusionary and gendered nature of sport processes to make them adequate to the task of engendering Africa's development. Gender Sport and Development in Africa is an immensely important contribution to current debates on the broader impacts of sport on society. It is an essential reading for students, policy makers and others interested in perspectives that interrogate the grand narratives of sport as a neutral instrument of development in African countries.

The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola, 2020-03-30 This Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices. It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living. The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement, the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct. It thereby offers a bold, incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa's ethical life and thought.

Gender Terrains in African Cinema Dominica Dipio, 2019-04-12 Gender Terrains in African Cinema reflects on a body of canonical African filmmakers who address a trajectory of pertinent social issues. Dipio analyses gender relations around three categories of female characters: the girl child, the young woman and the elderly woman and their male counterparts. Although gender remains the focal point in this lucid and fascinating text, Dipio engages attention in her discussion of African feminism in relation to Western feminism. With its broad appeal to African humanities, Gender Terrains in African Cinema stands as a unique and radical contribution to the field of African film studies which until now has suffered from a paucity of scholarship.

Global Dimensions of Qualitative Inquiry Norman K Denzin, Michael D Giardina, 2016-09-16 This focused collection of original articles addresses the global dynamics of qualitative inquiry and the contextual dimensions within which such inquiry takes place. Contributions from many of the world's leading qualitative researchers in communications, education, sociology and related disciplines focus on the changing landscape of social media, human rights, the Global South and decolonizing methodologies and guide the field toward a more engaged global perspective. Chapters were developed from plenary sessions of the Eighth International Congress of Qualitative Inquiry 2012.

Being and Becoming Ukpokolo, Chinyere, 2016-02-27 This book illuminates the complex and constantly shifting social and cultural dynamics that shape people's identity. Specifically, the volume focuses on the intersections of gender with culture and identity and at different historical epochs on the way men and women define themselves and are defined by diverse peoples and cultures across time and space in sub-Saharan Africa. The discussions presented in this anthology primarily focus on being as a state or condition defined by sex identity and how this identity shifts and hence becoming assuming diverse meanings in disparate societies, contexts and time. The discourse therefore moves from how the perception of the self in cultural and historical contexts has informed actions and at some other times shaped interpretations given to historical facts to how changing economic realities also shape the definitions and constructions of social and relational issues in sub-Saharan Africa. The historical trajectories of Islamic religion, colonialism and Christian missionary activities in sub-Saharan Africa have shaped the worlds of the peoples of the region and impacted on gender relations      Sexual Diversity in Africa

S.N. Nyeck, Marc Epprecht, 2013-10-01 How does one address homophobia without threatening majority rule democracy and freedoms of speech and faith How does one Africanize sexuality research empirically and theoretically in an environment that is not necessarily welcoming to African scholars In Sexual Diversity in Africa contributors critically engage with current debates about sexuality and gender identity as well as with contentious issues relating to methodology epistemology ethics and pedagogy They present a tapestry of issues that testify to the complex nature of sexuality sexual practices and gender performance in Africa Essays examine topics such as the well established same sex networks in Accra and Bamako African traditions defined by European observers and the bizarre mix of faith pharmaceuticals and pseudo science used to cure homosexual men Their evidence also demonstrates the indefensibility of over simplified constructions of homosexuality versus heterosexuality modern versus traditional Africa versus the West and progress from the African closet towards Western models of out politics all of which have tainted research on same sex practices and scientific studies of HIV AIDS Asserting that the study of sexuality is intellectually and politically sustainable in Africa Sexual Diversity in Africa contributes to the theorization of sexualities by presenting a more sensitive and knowledgeable study of African experiences and perspectives Contributors include Olajide Akanji Christophe Broqua Cheryl Cooky Serena Owusua Dankwa Shari L Dworkin Marc Epprecht Melissa Hackman Notisha Massaquoi Crystal Munthree Kathleen O Mara Stella Nyanzi S N Nyeck Vasu Reddy Amanda Lock Swarr and Lisa Wiebesiek      Mothers and Schooling Fibian Lukalo, 2021-11-29 This ground breaking book opens new horizons in understanding educational decision making and how schooling patterns are shaped by and reshape rural communities It provides a humane portrait of the struggles faced by mothers in rural Kenya to educate their children despite the free education policy Based on a prize winning study examining mothers attitudes to education in a rural Kenyan community this vividly nuanced ethnographic work draws upon African feminist perspectives to describe the livelihoods and aspirations of 32 mothers responsible for over 180 children It explores the effects of mothers school histories and the constraining effects of land practices and patriarchal culture on their actions Their school choice and engagement strategies reflect different facilitating environments their educational values the use of social mothering practices and reliance on kinship reciprocity The findings illustrate the importance of recognising the diversity of mothers situations within this small community and the pressures they face to be good mothers who school their children Mothers and Schooling highlights the importance of mothers educational agency and is essential reading for anthropologists of education those working in gender studies poverty alleviation strategists educational researchers teachers and policy makers who wish to improve the success of Education for All for the children of women living in Southern rural poverty      Localization in Development Aid Thorsten Bonacker, Judith von Heusinger, Kerstin Zimmer, 2016-11-25 This edited volume brings together the work of scholars from different disciplines including sociology political science and anthropology and analyses how global

Africa Environmental Justice in African Philosophy Munamoto Chemhuru, 2022-04-07 This book focuses on environmental justice in African philosophy highlighting important new perspectives which will be of significance to researchers with an interest in environmental ethics both within Africa and beyond Drawing on African social and ethical conceptions of existence the book makes suggestions for how to derive environmental justice from African philosophies such as communitarian ethics relational ethics unhu ubuntu ethics ecofeminist ethics and intergenerational ethics Specifically the book emphasises the ways in which African philosophies of existence seek to involve everyone in environmental policy and planning and to equitably distribute both environmental benefits such as natural resources and environmental burdens such as pollution and the location of mining industrial or dumping sites This extends to fair distribution between global South and global North rich and poor urban and rural populations men and women and adults and children These principles of humaneness relationships equality interconnectedness and teleologically oriented existence among all beings are important not only to African environmental justice but also to the environmental justice movement globally The book will interest researchers and students working in the fields of environmental ethics African philosophy and political philosophy in general Gender and Peacebuilding Maureen P. Flaherty, Thomas G. Matyók, Sean Byrne, Hamdesa Tuso, 2015-10-16 The twenty first century has brought with it a shift from the notion of human security being located in secure national borders to the need to secure the safety freedom and dignity of all Despite efforts to equalize women s status in the world evidenced by changes in many international projects requiring a gender focus women and men experience most of the world in very different ways according to gender Further the reality is that humans who do not all fall neatly into one of these categories male or female often find their lives further challenged In the 1980s Peace and Conflict Studies first began to acknowledge and study the different experiences males and females have during war and peace Since then there have been books about women and war women working at grassroots levels to build peace women and transitional justice women and peace education and women s views of human security All of these works have contributed to the discourse of our changing world This book brings together some of those themes and voices and adds more with the final product being more than the sum of its parts We add to the conversation a book that considers foundational fundamental issues that span from the interpersonal to the global Many of the chapters describe empirical research completed with author and community shared here for the first time Part One is a collection of case studies documenting challenges and responses to peacebuilding by women from various parts of the world Part Two focuses on Peace and Conflict Studies PACS as a discipline examining not only what is but also what should be taught This section critiques today s efforts at teaching Peace and Conflict Studies and provides suggestions of how this important work might be shared in more open and equitable ways Part Three enters territory found even less in the PACS literature In this section our authors confront patriarchy engage in a discussion about the contribution queer theory makes to PACS and tussle with the notion of inclusivity with considerations of both gender and disability It then ends with a discussion about the contribution feminist methodologies make to PACS      Handbook of African Philosophy Elvis Imafidon,Mpho Tshivhase,Björn Freter,2023-09-30 This Handbook provides in one volume rich comprehensive and rigorous coverage of specific subject areas and thematic concerns in the ever evolving academic discipline of African philosophy This Handbook is unique in its focus on central and emerging areas within African philosophy such as Afro communitarian philosophy ethics epistemology social and political philosophy existentialism philosophy of religion gender philosophy philosophy of education phenomenology transhumanism African philosophy futures and philosophy of the non human The thirty two chapters in this Handbook explore the rich textual and non textual forms of philosophical knowledge in Africa and adequately represent the broad and diverse scope of African philosophy showing the richness and depth of the philosophical tradition This reference work is indispensable to students and researchers in African philosophy comparative philosophy and world philosophies

An Invitation to Non-Hegemonic World Sociology Eric Macé,2024-07-19 Although sociology is present as a discipline or as a social practice in most countries in the world its future as a not only Western social science has hardly been addressed before In this book a team of interdisciplinary scholars have been working together not so much to offer one single response to the question than to raise important issues at stake for the future of sociology Is it universal Can it be indigenous How is it possible and is it even desirable to write its history differently so as to know better about its early world diffusion and gradual Westernization Do we need to expand or change its canon This collection brings together essays that are all engaged in international discussions concerning the universality of sociology or more precisely the epistemological and theoretical conditions of this universality The postcolonial and decolonial critiques of the Eurocentrism of sociology are the basis for a reflection on how to continue to do sociology in a non hegemonic way That is sociological ways of describing reality including the history of sociology and its canon that are not limited by Western centrism or other nationalist or religious hegemonies

Reimagining the Italian South Goffredo Polizzi,2022-03-25 Images of southern Italy as a place of arrival for migrants with different origins and backgrounds have in recent years proliferated in Italian media as well as in contemporary Italian literature and cinema The unprecedented perspective which presents the mezzogiorno as a place where people arrive and not only as a place of departure constitutes a major change in the collective imaginary on the region and fosters new engagements with its migratory histories This book presents one of the first studies to focus entirely through in depth readings of a range of contemporary literary and cinematic texts on the representation of contemporary migration to southern Italy and on the concomitant changes in the tradition of representation of the region Informed by translation theory and by decolonial queer and feminist critique this innovative study zeroes in on the mutual construction of race gender and sexuality and on the translation and hybridization of languages and cultures at the southern border By giving a rich and compelling account of texts which tell multiple stories of mobility from to and through the South this book traces the emergence of a transnational imaginary of the mezzogiorno which offers useful tools for an urgent reconfiguration of collective and individual identities      Entrepreneurship Thierry Burger-Helmchen, 2012-03-14 Entrepreneurship is a main driver of economic growth and of social dynamics However some basic characteristics like the gender of the entrepreneur the geographical location or the social context may have a tremendous impact on the possibility to become an entrepreneur to create a firm and to prosper This book is a collection of papers written by an array of international authors interested in the question of entrepreneurship from a gender point of view male vs female entrepreneurship a geographical point of view Africa Europe America and Latin America Asia or a specific social context point of view agricultural economy farming or family business etc
